OBITUARY

THE LATE MRS. THOS. DONNELLY, MONTREAL.

Again the Angel of Death has visited the family of Mr. Thomas Donnelly and has taken away the mother. It was only ten days ago that the eldest daughter, Alice, was summoned to the mercy seat...

The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Mary Ann Fahey, was a native of New Orleans, and was 54 years of age.

Her husband, two sons and one daughter survive her. They are very much grieved, however, under the double bereavement.

The funeral took place Saturday morning from the family residence, 113 McCord street, to St. Ann's Church. The funeral was a very large one, the deceased having a host of friends.

The chief mourners were: Mr. Thos. Donnelly, husband, and two sons, Thomas and Richard; Mr. D. Donnelly, P. Donnelly, brothers-in-law of the deceased; Patrick and Daniel Donnelly, cousins.

In the funeral cortege were noticed: Hon. James Curran, Aid. Gallery, M. P., Aid. Walsh, ex. Aid. Kinsella, M. P., Slattery, R. Finlayson, Thomas O'Donnell, P. McCarrey, Ed. McKeefe, C. G. Mason, Wm. Reynolds, J. E. Murray, Charles Cloran, J. P. Brennan, Thomas Hanley, John Mulcaire, Thomas Mulcaire, Jas. Broderick, Edward Kennedy, Joseph Hart, D. J. McShane, James Finnigan, Patrick Noonan, T. Slattery, P. Flanagan, Andrew Cullen, Michael Clarke, Peter Banahan, John McAvoy, Owen Tansley, Bernard Tansley, John Conroy, John Ahearn, John Killoran, Frank Clarke, P. T. O'Brien, John Powers, Wm. Murphy, P. J. Shea, T. Emblem, John Hughes, Fred. Harford, James Madigan, James Power, Michael Toner, Michael Donovan, Ed. Quinn, Dr. Tansley, Frank Foran, Dr. Scanlan and others.

At the grave Rev. James Killoran said the last prayers. R. I. P.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JOHN CURRAN, PETERBOROUGH.

Peterborough, Aug. 28.—The announcement a few days ago of the death in Jacksonville, Fla., of Mr. John Curran, who had many warm friends in Peterborough, his old home, was received with sincere regret by all who were acquainted with this genial, whole-souled gentleman.

The funeral took place this morning from the residence of Mrs. Curran, Aylmer street. The remains were accompanied by Mr. Curran, Aylmer street. The remains were accompanied by Mr. F. W. Shelly, of that place, and Mr. T. C. Cribben, of Sanford, Florida.

years he had obtained a thorough grasp of his duties and was ever accorded the hearty support and co-operation of the large staff under him.

Just two weeks ago to-morrow, Saturday, 15th, Mr. Curran had gone to St. Luke's Hospital, in Jacksonville, in order to recuperate before leaving upon a trip to Peterborough.

His friends frequently visited him, and any thought of serious illness seemed farthest from his mind. On several occasions, however, he expressed the wish that, were he called away in Florida his friends would lay him to rest beside the last resting place of his parents in Peterborough.

They to-day fulfilled that wish lovingly and with every respect to his wishes. One week ago to-night, Mr. Curran was taken ill. Anticipating no trouble the physicians had left him, but about six o'clock in the morning they were summoned by the nurse. His pulse was very low, and in spite of all effort to revive him, he gradually sank and passed peacefully away.

Arrangements for the obsequies were carried out according as he had directed, and to-day all that was mortal was laid reverently away.

The bearers at the funeral this morning were six of the late Mr. Curran's most intimate friends, Messrs. Frank Brown, John Mervin, Henry Best, J. P. Bryson, Jas. Murty and Wm. Buller. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery, and in the service at the grave, Rev. Dr. O'Brien officiated.

Two very beautiful floral tributes were those sent by the employees of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway and other friends in Florida, while floral symbols of remembrance by two friends were sent from Mr. Wm. Snowden, an anchor from Mr. J. P. Murty, a cross from Mr. Frank Brown and gates ajar from the executors of the estate. The tributes were by Mr. Arthur Blaine, florist.

THE LATE MR. SAMUEL CROSS.

A large number of friends of the late Mr. Samuel Cross paid their last tribute of respect Friday morning, when the funeral took place from the residence, 55 Cathcart street, to St. Patrick's Church, where a Solemn Requiem Mass was said.

The deceased had been Secretary of St. Patrick's Society for years, and was employed in the H. M. Customs as Secretary to Mr. R. S. White, Collector of Customs. Among those who were present were R. S. White, Remi Boyer, H. McLaughlin, W. J. McKenna, Jno. Davis, J. McCluskey, John Coyne, L. J. Tessier, B. Holdbrook, R. V. Warren, N. Necher, J. Sherritt, P. J. McElroy, J. S. Sorley, T. McCracken, John Hall, P. McCarrey, B. Tansley, Dr. Tansley, Owen Tansley, W. Beachamp, John Reynolds, J. W. Ryan, R. G. Matthews, P. Doyle, Geo. Carpenter, M. Fitzgibbon, M. Birmingham, also a representation from St. Patrick's Society.

After the singing of the Libera, the body was borne down the aisle of the church to the mournful strains of Chopin's Funeral March, played by Prof. J. A. Fowler. Interment took place at Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

Montreal, Aug. 31, 1903.

John A. Doyle Drowned

John A. Doyle, aged 18 years, was accidentally drowned near Beaverton Saturday afternoon. He went there about three weeks ago to join his family who had been summering at that place.

In the afternoon he and a younger brother, Bernard, went out in a boat, and when some distance from the shore John jumped in for a swim. He then said that he would swim ashore, but the lake was very rough, and before reaching land he became tired and called for help.

Bernard hastened to his brother's assistance, but was unable to reach him in time. The body was recovered soon afterward, but life was extinct. The deceased was a son of Mr. B. J. Doyle of the Inland Revenue Department at the Gooderham & Woerts distillery. He was a student of St. Michael's College. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning, R. I. P.

At a special meeting of the St. Michael's Sanctuary Society, held in St. John's Chapel, the following resolutions were proposed by Mr. T. Hynes, seconded by Mr. E. Foley, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased our Almighty Father in His infinite wisdom to call from our midst one of our most esteemed members, Mr. John A. Doyle.

Be it therefore resolved, That while bowing with filial submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, who has decreed our Heavenly Father, we record the deep sorrow which this sad event has caused us.

Be it further resolved, That we extend to his grief-stricken parents and friends our most heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorest trial.

Be it also resolved, That the members attend the funeral in a body that they have Mass celebrated for the repose of his soul, at the earliest possible date, at which all the members shall communicate.

Be it finally resolved, That a copy of this resolution be presented to the sorrowing parents of our lamented confere and that a copy be sent to The Catholic Register for publication.

A Place You Should Visit

The many customers from out of town of Mr. H. C. Tomlin, proprietor of the Toronto Bakery at Nos. 420, 422, 424, 426 and 428 Bathurst street, should partake of the opportunity whilst in the city of visiting and inspecting his place of business.

A meeting of the Grand Trustees of the Irish Catholic Benevolent Union of Canada was held at the head office, Toronto, for the purpose of filling the position of Grand President, made vacant by the death of the late Stephen Hallett.

The choice of the meeting was Mr. Samuel Cheeseman, the retail grocer of King street west, Hamilton, who is a very active member of Branch No. 4, and has extensive experience in the business of the Union.

The following resolution of condolence was passed: Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our late worthy Grand President and esteemed Brother Stephen Hallett,

Resolved, That we deplore the loss of Stephen Hallett with deep feelings of regret, softened only by the confident hope that his spirit is with those who, having fought the good fight here, are enjoying eternal happiness in a better world.

Resolved, That we tender to his afflicted relatives our sincere condolence and our earnest sympathy in their affliction at the loss of one who was so good a husband, a devoted father and an upright man.

Resolved, That the members of this Association remember the deceased in their prayers and that the charters of Grand and Local Branches be draped in black for the space of thirty days.

New Pope Once a French Subject

London, Aug. 29.—Many stories are being told of the dislike of etiquette and ceremony by the new Pope, Pius X.

The Paris Figaro points out that the Pope was a French subject for at least a few hours. He was born at Trieste, Venetia, which was ceded in 1866 by the Emperor of Austria to Napoleon III., who transferred it to Italy. During the interval of the two treaties the Pope, as other Venetians, were French subjects.

The Pope is credited with having said recently: "I have always made it a point to read the daily papers, but just now I am refraining from doing so. The first thing essential for me is to collect my ideas."

Insects were being studied by a first grade school. The pupils were much interested in and were displaying a little knowledge on the subject.

There can be no surer sign of predestination than to carry one's cross patiently and lovingly for Christ's sake.
