QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

HOGS TRESPASSING.

A and B are two farmers, neighbors, one living across the road from the other. B's hogs have been troubling A for some time, rooting up newly-seeded field of red clover terribly. A has asked B several times to take care of hogs, still he allows the hogs to cross the road and damage the crop.

1. What action will it be necessary for A to take to get pay for damage done?
2. Must the hogs be driven to pound?
3. Can they be loaded?

Ans.—1. He may proceed either under the Act respecting pounds (Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897, chap. 172), or by suit in the Division Court.
2. Not necessarily.
3. Yes.

SHORTHORN HERDBOOKS.

Having established a Shorthorn herd last fall, I now have several calves to register, so am desirous of a little information regarding such. I sent my membership fee to the secretary of the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association about January, and asked for the latest volume of the herdbook, also application forms and transfer blanks. I have received nothing but receipt for membership fee. Please let me know what is the number of the latest volume, and if I am not entitled to it.

Ans.—As we understand it, a member of the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association is entitled to the volume of the herdbook for the year or years in which his annual membership fee is paid, so the probability is that you will, in due time (or some time) receive Vol. 24, as volume 23, the latest published, was issued during the past winter, and is dated 1906. Volume 22 has not yet reached this office, and the explanation, in a letter from the Accountant, dated April 12th, 1907, is that this volume was placed in the hands of another printing house and had been delayed in the binding, but was expected to be ready for distribution by April 15th. Possibly members have received it before this date. If you asked for blank forms, you should have received them by return mail. As to the herdbook, it will probably suit you best to receive the volume in which your calves are recorded.

MISCELLANEOUS QUERIES.

Please answer the following questions:
1. How to make a self-feeding box for condiments to be used by pigs?
2. How to make charcoal, and which kind of wood makes the best for feeding purpose?
3. Is hardwood ashes good to feed horses as a corrective? What effect would softwood ashes have?
4. Is the insertion, "Peas Pay," a contribution from a personal standpoint, or is the editor the author of it? For the public benefit, I can endorse the words, as I believe the pea crop promises to be a good one.
5. Can you give the address of the army pension office of the United States?

NEW SUBSCRIBER.
Ans.—1. The hopper feeders illustrated and described in "Poultry" department of our June 6th issue, page 950, might easily be modified to answer this purpose.

2. Any kind of wood may be used, but probably pine limbs are best. Sticks are piled up in conical shape, wide at bottom and narrow at top, and covered with sods and earth, a small opening being left vertically in center from bottom to top for a chimney, and another opening horizontally in the bottom, extending to central chimney. The object is to burn to blackness without consuming, and it requires judgment to manage it so that the fire does not blaze too strongly. Corn cobs, partially burned, and the fire extinguished by water, are said to make a useful charcoal for feeding to hogs.

3. A small handful of sifted hardwood ashes fed to horses occasionally may have a good effect, especially where worms are suspected.
4. This was an advertisement ordered by a canning factory.

MILBURN'S HEART and NERVE PILLS SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. John C. Yensen, Little Rocher, N.B., writes: "I was troubled with a stab-like pain through my heart. I tried many remedies, but they seemed to do me more harm than good. I was then advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after using two boxes I was completely cured. I cannot praise them enough for the world of good they did for me, for I believe they saved my life."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
