Editor's Talk

Mr. Wilfrid Gariepy

MR. WILFRID GARIEPY, whose article on the unique system of municipal government in Edmonton is a feature of this issue, was born in Montreal and educated at Laval and McGill. In 1893 the family moved to Edmonton, and since 1903 the son has been practising law there. In 1906 he was elected as an alderman for two years, and in 1908 re-elected by an overwhelming vote. He is first vice-president of the Union of Alberta Municipalities, and is considered one of the authorities of the West, so far as city government is concerned.

In the old days, Eastern Canada worked out some problems which had baffled the Old World. Now Western Canada is inaugurating municipal and other reforms which the East is too timid to try. It is the same old whirling.

The newer communities profit by the mistakes of the old.
