...When Mr. Surely returned to his lodg-
...his wife was utterly astounded upon
...learning the nature of the contract her hus-
...vent attending church, and who is usually
...to accompany a wife, daughter or sister
...home.
...Such, of course, we do not censure. But,
...as scarcely one in ten belongs to this class;
...perish. Now, would complain of dull
...Sabbaths or, wandering thoughts, or tedious
...services, were they to secure, for the pur-
...poses of private devotion, the morning of the ...Sabbath. A sacred impulse would be ob-
...in a keener relish for the privileges and
...means of grace; there is a more grateful
...appreciation of God's blessings, temporal
...and spiritual; there is more love and for-
...bearance toward enemies; there are strong-
...great calibre.
