St. Paul's, Brainerd, Duluth, has recently been enriched by the gift of a beautiful brass processional cross. The whole cross was made at Brainerd at the foundry of Mr. C. N. Parker, and was given by him. The stick is of mahogany and was presented by Mr. John Lowery, a communicant. Mr. Parker, while not a communicant is a friend and supporter of the parish. A set of Eucharistic lights is shortly to be given to this church as a memorial gift.

In connection with the Pan-Anglican Congress, which is to be held in the summer, an effort is to be made to raise money on a scale which has never been attempted by any religious body. It is proposed to provide a thanksgiving fund of £5,000,000. There are altogether 249 dioceses connected with the Anglican Church in all parts of the world, and it is hoped that nearly all the Bishops of these dioceses will be present and that they will each bring a handsome contribution to the Thanksgiving Fund. It is expected that between seven and eight thousand delegates will attend this Congress, and there is reason to hope that all of these will be guests of members of the Anglican community in London. The committee which is arranging for the reception of the visitors is receiving many offers of hospitality of this character.
