TWO BANDITS HOLD UP TRAIN

Michigan Central Express is Held Up Between Detroit and Chicago.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—With the assistance of two reluctant but badly armed porters, a lone bandit held up passengers on the rear sleeper of the Michigan Central passenger train due here from Detroit at 7.30 o'clock this morning. It was a zero comic affair, which netted the bandit something under $300.

The robber entered the train at Jackson, Michigan, and left it about 15 minutes later when Louis Thomas, one of the porters, signalled for the emergency brakes.

T. Merritt, porter of the car attacked, was the first to view the robber, who pointed a pistol at him and banded him a bag.

"Here," said the intruder, who was dressed in a black and white checked suit and wore a cap pulled down over his eyes, "you go ahead and wake the passengers. Tell them there's a robber wants their money.
No monkey business, I've got three or four pals with me."

Merritt took the bag or hat, he is not sure which, but thinks it was a bag, and shook the occupant of the first berth he came to. "Excuse me, sir," said the porter, "but there's a man here says give him your money."

"Aw shut up, quit your kidding and let me sleep," came the angry reply from the berth.

"Tell him I'm a real robber with a gun," interposed the bandit, who poked the weapon between the curtains, when there was a tinkling of coins falling into the receptacle in the porter's hands.

From A. M. Todd of Chicago, the robber got $135; from Herman Marks of Detroit $100 and from A. B. Palmer of New York an unknown sum.
"I don't know how much," said Palmer, "but it was what spare change I had with me."

There were about twenty passengers in the car, and most of them didn't know that anything had happened until they arose in the morning. The robbery took place at 1.45 o'clock. There were no women in the car.

The conductor of the train was authority for the statement that there was but one robber. One porter thought there were four of them, and the other thought there were five.
The conductor said that so far as he was able to learn the bandit's comrades existed only in some excited imagination.

DETROIT, Jan. 23.—Michigan Central passenger train No. 7, westbound from Detroit to Chicago, was held up early this morning near Jackson by four armed highwaymen, according to a report from Battle Creek. The bandits boarded the train at Jackson and when a short distance west of that place entered the Pullman car, covering the passengers with pistols. Several persons had been robbed when the train was stopped by some one pulling the bell cord signal. The robbers jumped from the Pullman and made their escape, having been fired.

Later.

MARSHALL, Mich., Jan. 23.— When Michigan Central train No. 7 which was held up near Jackson early to-day by four men, arrived here, the passengers took an inventory of their losses, and it was estimated that the bandits escaped with about $236. Two of the robbers, who worked without masks, caused the conductor, brakeman and porters to stand with their hands in the air while the other two went through the coaches and took the valuables of the sleeping passengers. All of the coaches except one were sleepers.

The passengers were not compelled to leave their berths, the robbers reaching in, hauling out clothing and grabs, searching them and moving on.
It is said there were several women on the train, but none was seriously affected by fright. The whole affair was worked so smoothly and with so little confusion that the engine crew knew nothing of the hold-up until after it had been accomplished.

Although the robbers wore no masks, it is said a very poor description of them was obtained. The coaches were dimly lighted.

Great Lakes Heavy Toll

Most Disastrous Year in All Their History
Was 1913.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 23.—The 1913 was the most disastrous in the history of the great lakes protective association, according to its Secretary, George A. Marr, of Cleveland, who submitted his report at the association's annual meeting here today. Up to November 1 there was every indication, the year would prove more profitable to the Underwriters than 1912, but the terrific storms of November so changed the previous showing that it was necessary to make a special assessment amounting to 50 per cent of the original contributions, or premiums, on all members, in order to meet the losses involved. Six of the 18 vessels totally lost and eight of those damaged during the storm were members of the association. The losses paid up to January 10, the report says, amounted to $136,568, while losses reported, but not yet adjusted is estimated at $154,804.

The association last year increased its line of insurance to 25 per cent of the total amount carried by the various vessels. Two hundred and thirteen certificates given on the 211 boats insured in the association. On these vessels the total insurance was $48,139,633 of which the association assumed $12,024,983.

Two important cases Mr. Marr says in the report are made by the advisory committee of the association. These are that the tonnage values on steel hulls for insurance purposes be reduced from $51 to $48.36, and that no further wooden tonnage be received into the association.

Chamberlain's Retirement Causes Regret

Thinks Younger Man is Needed by Conservative Party for Political Fight.

General regret will be felt at the announcement that Mr Joseph Chamberlain has decided to sever the last link binding him to political life by retiring from Parliament. At the next General Election West Birmingham will have to choose a successor after being represented by "Joe" for thirty-seven years.

The announcement was made in the form of a letter to Mr. G. Tit-terton, president of the West Birmingham Liberal Unionist Association, which was published on Wednesday, and ran as follows:

My dear Titterton,—Before leaving home for the South of France, I think I ought to communicate to you the decision at which I have arrived to retire from Parliament at the next General Election. I have not come to this decision without many regrets at the severance of a connection which has already lasted for over thirty-seven years, and has been marked on the part of my constituents by an overgrowing confidence and support; but I cannot hope again to do my work in Parliament, and I feel that our city and the constituency need the services of a younger man who will take an active part in the Parliamentary struggle and help you to maintain the supremacy of the Unionist cause in Birmingham.

In announcing to my old friends and constituents that I shall not offer myself again for re-election when a General Election comes, I would ask you to thank them all for their long-continued kindness to me, and for the loyal and undeviating support which has been my mainstay throughout my public life. Assure them of my abiding interest in all that concerns their welfare, and of my lasting gratitude for their friendship and good will. Believe me, with all good wishes to you and them, yours very truly, J. Chamberlain.

A second letter, couched in similar terms, was addressed to Mr. Tonks, president of the West Birmingham Conservative Association.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain, in an interview, said it was no sudden decision on his father's part. He had felt for some time that it was clear that he would no be able to take any active part in politics again, and that such a consideration would prevent him from standing at the next General Election. The decision, reached some months ago, was now made public, as Mr. Chamberlain was about to leave for Cannes. No actual date, however, had been fixed for his departure.

Questioned as to the possibility of his succeeding his father in the seat, Mr. Austen Chamberlain said the matter rested with the local Unionist association. If such an invitation came he would carefully consider it. He now sits for East Worcestershire, a neighboring constituency.

A MOTHER'S DUTY TO HER DAUGHTER

IS TO GUARD HER HEALTH BY KEEPING HER BLOOD
SUPPLY PURE.

Anxious mothers who see their daughters fail in strength, become pale and languid, can be certain that the cause of their anxiety is the condition of the growing girl's blood.
At no time in her life does a girl stand in greater need of pure, red blood and the strength which it alone can give her, than when she is developing into womanhood. It is then that anaemia rapidly develops and the growing girl finds herself in declining health. If your daughter complains of feeling constantly tired, if her appetite is fickle, if she is breathless from slight exertion, or if her heart palpitates violently on going upstairs, it is a certain sign that her blood is failing to meet the demand; upon it, because it is thin and watery. It is at such times that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are worth their weight in gold to tired anaemic girls. They actually make the new, red blood, that brings brightness to the eye, the bloom of health to the cheeks, and strength and activity to the whole body. The following is an instance of their value to young girls.
Miss Hilda Pearl Snowe, Barrington, N. S., gradually drooped under an attack of anaemia. At first she was pale and listless, suffering from occasional headaches, but as the trouble progressed, a severe cough also attacked her and her friends feared she was in the grip of consumption.
Almost broken down, she was being treated medically, but with no apparent benefit. At a critical stage of her illness Miss Snowe wisely decided that she would give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. After taking them for some time there was a noticeable improvement in her case and the Pills were gladly continued until she was fully restored to health. Miss Snowe is to-day as healthy and rugged as any girl could wish to be, and her friends believe that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved her life.

These Pills not only cure anaemia, but all troubles due to poor blood and weak nerves. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Risen from the Ranks.

on Monday night appointed Chief Constable of Ashton-under-Lyne in succession to Mr. John Snell, who died three weeks ago, has been in the borough forces for twenty-six years, and has risen from the ranks.
