J. M. Alderson

In memoriam. Pte. Ralph E. Orr, No. 13629, 3rd Batt., C. E. F. Killed in action 22nd May, 1915.

Imperishably inscribed upon the roll of Fame,

Thy beloved name, dear Ralph, shall ever brightly shine.

Among those of comrade heroes of Canadian name

Whose valor will unexcelled remain through time;

Lustrous examples of devotion to King, Country,

Honor, Virtue, Liberty, all nobly defended

With your life, the cause of Justice, basely offended

By vilest monster, hell taught in mad effrontery.

That furious dragon mad Kaiser Will helm o'erthrown.

Shall be, for God hath said, "Vengeance is mine," so not thine,

Impious disturber of world's peace, his peer unknown

As murderer of innocent humanity his line,

Heaven grant, swept from this beautiful earth soon may be.

In retribution of accursed deeds, and may we

In sweet victory exult o'er Teuton, Turk and Hun;

Your part, dear Ralph, was nobly done, dearly beloved son.

—Wm. E. R. Orr.

Grow Rich In Canada.

In Wayakama, Japan, is a fishing village which has supplied nearly one thousand men and women for the fishing industry of Canada, according to an Osaka paper. Many of these emigrants have made money and some of them have become so comfortably circumstanced that they are able to take occasional holidays at home. This is chiefly in the winter, when many return to the village of Mio to choose a wife, leave a child at school, or simply to enjoy the old environment. When a steamer from Canada arrives, "it is a sight to see long lines of rickshas along the road to Mio with youthful passengers dressed in the latest Canadian style. At the entrance of the village they are met by crowds of relatives and acquaintances, and pretty girls dressed in their gayest kimono are not wanting."

A Useless Father.

He was the four-year-old offspring of the beloved minister of a well-known and popular church, a minister renowned for his eloquent appeal to the practical as well as the spiritual side of life. One day the young son and heir was having trouble with his go-cart when a neighbor passing by was appealed to for help. The neighbor felt incompetent to advise and asked: "Why don't you go to your father and find out what's the matter? He'll know." "No use," said the little chap in disgust. "He won't know. He don't know anything except about God!"

Bohemian Methods.

Ottawa's police are interfering in the family affairs of Antoine Laurin, whose wife married Alfred Pichette recently, while Laurin himself has transferred his affections to a sister of the woman whom he had wedded eleven years ago, the ceremony of the second marriage without divorce preliminaries being witnessed with approval by all members of the tangled families.

Marble Statue With Eyelashes.

The antique statue of the sleeping Ariadne, one of the gems of the Vatican Museum, is celebrated as the only marble statue with eyelashes.

Labor Approves Bureaus.

The establishment of bureaus of labor proposed by the Ottawa Government meets with the approval of the labor organizations there.

United Mineworkers.

Membership in the United Mineworkers now totals 428,781, of whom 8,443 are Canadians.
