

THE ARC-LIGHT.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1882.

The Imperial Federation of the County of Pictou recently held a meeting at which many Liberals and a large number of Conservatives were present.

A great boom has lately been going on in and about New Glasgow in the interests of the iron deposits on the East River of Pictou.

The Big Storm.

Buildings Blown Down and a Large Number of Lives Lost.

Loss about $300,000. READING, Pa., Jan. 10.—The rain was pouring down all yesterday morning.

DARK, HEAVY BANKS OF CLOUDS marshalled themselves towards the front, and a gloom seemed to have settled over the city.

IT FELL TO PIECES.

As if composed of a mass of building blocks, nearly 200 houses, being blown down in the awful work.

A BIZARR GLARE.

The police force was called out to maintain order and relief corps, and a thousand people were in among the debris.

EXPLODED WITH TERRIFIC FORCE.

causing the people all over the city to run out of their houses, thinking that it was an earthquake.
