$1.50 A YEAR

During these undeniably hard times The Observer will accept both new and renewal subscriptions at the special price of $1.50 per year. To take advantage of this payment must be made strictly in advance. The address label on the margin of the paper indicates the month and the year the subscription expires. Here is an example—

"John Jones, Jan. '22"

This indicates clearly, that John Jones' subscription expires with the month of January, 1922. All subscriptions expire with the last issue in the month they are paid to.

Please remember that at the $1.50 rate subscriptions MUST be paid IN ADVANCE. Otherwise the price is $2.00 a year. The manager will be quite willing to accept renewals of subscriptions that expired last month if paid any time during this month. In fact if any subscriber owes back as far as Oct.
'21 he may pay up for a full year at the reduced rate of $1.50—if he does it NOW!

"A TALE OF TWO WORLDS"

Had Frank Lloyd, Goldwyn director, known the Chinese alphabet, he would have saved himself the time and the impotence incident to remaking a scene in Gouverneur Morris photoplay, "A Tale of Two Worlds," which was made at the Goldwyn studios and will be shown at the Neighborhood Theatre, on Feb. 4.

The story deals with the love of an American for a girl who is being reared by a Chinese servant. Throughout the story several hundred Chinese were employed in mob scenes. These extras were gathered in and about Los Angeles. It may not be generally known that the meaning of Chinese words depends upon the way they are pronounced; that is to say, upon what notes they are sung. Another difficulty is the fact that the Chinese musical scale consists of quarter steps, whereas our scale is composed of half steps. It can be readily seen how hard it is for an American to sing words in Chinese.

Mr. Lloyd had to know a few words to direct his Chinese mob. One of them was "Fungo!" But when he shouted it through the megaphone, expecting the crowd to stand perfectly quiet, they began to shiver and shimmy. Lloyd was furious. He called the interpreter to him.

"Ah, no," said he. "You must say it with upward song, so: 'Fungo!'" And Frank Lloyd had his first lesson in the musical delicacies of the Chinese language.

Hockey Game

ruary 10.

SUNDRY NOTES

Washington now boasts of a man-less hotel. This hotel is to be run exclusively by women. The bell hops, porters, cooks, room clerks and other employees are all women. The manager is a woman, formerly manager of the government hotel for war workers.

No word was spoken at a recent trial of a man arraigned on the charge of murder at the Old Bailey in London.
The prisoner was deaf, and as there was no person in court competent to use the sign language the entire proceedings were conducted in writing.

A lawsuit, started some 600 years ago, was recently called for trial in a French court. The costs and fees of several centuries exceeded the value sought. It has to do with the distribution of some land in the Jura Mountains, between the communities of Mousis and Chardilla.

Rene Maran, a young Negro author, has won the annual prize of the Goncourt Academy for the best French novel of 1921. This author was born on the island of Martinique, French West Indies. The novel deals with colored life in Central Africa and is entitled "Bataoua." The Goncourt prize is worth 5,000 francs, but is one of the most cherished literary awards of France.

The life-sized figure of a woman carved in a solid rock was recently found by campers in a remote corner of Crater Lake, National Park, Oregon. It has been impossible to learn so far, when the carving was done or by whom. The initials M. A. Y. and markings which appear to be 1843 are seen near by. This region was practically unknown by white men in 1843.

The smallest modern gold coin in the world, so far as is known, has just been minted in Geneva. It represents the gold franc and is the coin on which the budget of the League of Nations is to be calculated. In shape it is octagonal and on one side is engraved the initials "S. D. N." (Societe des Nations). It is valued at about two cents and weighs .03225965 of a gramme.

It is a convenience when making preserves, after they are put away in a closet, to make a list of what you have and fasten it on the closet door with a pencil attached; then when you take a jar out, cross it off.

A new discovery by which vulcan-ized rubber may be made in any shape or color, ranging from the most delicate pink and blue to the deepest purples and blues, has been announced.
Toy balls made of rubber may now be made highly colored in designs similar to patterns in linoleum. No paint can chip or come off, because the color is in the rubber. The new discovery has broadened the field of usefulness for vulcanized rubber.

SMITH DECLARES

HE WAS ALARMED

Sudden Turn For The Worst Served
As Warning To This
Winnipeg Man

"My advice to anybody with stomach trouble is to take Tanlac. I have tried dieting, medicine and everything else but Tanlac is the only thing that ever helped me," said A. W. Smith, a well-known tailor, residing at 371 Arlington St., Winnipeg, Man.

"I had a chronic case of stomach trouble that had been giving me constant bother for two years or more.
I had to be particular about what I ate and there were many things I couldn't touch. At times I turned almost deathly sick and would have the worst sort of pains in my stomach.
I was subject to awful headaches that made me nervous and restless and I got to where I would lie awake in bed for hours hardly able to get any sleep at all. A few weeks ago I took a turn for the worse and that scared me and I took it as a warning.

"So I started on Tanlac as I had heard a lot about it and had been thinking of trying it. And it just hit the spot and I felt an immediate relief. I struck right with Tanlac then and now I can't tell I ever had stomach trouble. My appetite is first class and nothing I eat hurts me. The fact is, I feel great and consider Tanlac is in a class all by itself."

Tanlac is sold in Hartland by Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd., and by leading druggists everywhere.

One man in the United States is living in approximately four different states at the same time. He is a ranchman whose house and land cover the corners of Utah, Colorado, Arizona and New Mexico. The windmill that pumps water for his stock stands in New Mexico and pumps water in a trough in Arizona. The house is exactly in the centre of where the four corners of the several states meet.

Finely chopped parsley added to canned peas and string beans before heating will improve the flavor.

The electric light and power company of O'Neill, Nebraska, has begun to burn corn for fuel, according to reports.

AT NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE ON

Saturday, Feb. 4

Gouverneur Morris, the famous author, has written a stirring tale of adventure with Frisco's celebrated Chinese quarter as a background, and Goldwyn has made it into a picture that will hold you spellbound.

The story of little Sui Sen, stolen from white parents during the Boxer rebellion and brought up as a Chinese girl; of Ling Jo, sinister tyrant of Chinatown; of Newcomb, bold American who lost his heart to Sui Sen; and of the terrible torture chamber of the tong-leader, makes a picture that will live long in your memory.
