The quantity of flour and wheat in transit has shown a decrease, and stood on the 13th inst. at 1,350,000 qrs, being a decrease of 125,690 qrs for the week, against 1,462,000 qrs on the 30th-ult., and 1,329,000 qrs at the corresponding date last year. The expected arrivals at ports of call from the fleet affoat on the 30th-ult. between that date and February 28th, were 327,600 qrs of wheat, comprising 79,000 qrs from the Danube and the Black and Azov Seas; 48,000 qrs from Atlantic ports; 195,000 qrs from California PROVISIONS.

Trade—Has been rather less active, but the market continues very firm all over.

Burrae—The enquiry of the preceding weak has been maintained, and a good deal has changed hands a firm prices for all sorts. Selections have been scarce and wanted, with sales at 11 to 13c, which would have been repeated to-day. Choice round lots have sold as high as 9-te-10c; medium have brought 7 to 8c, and inferior has been worth 37-to 8c. There is now very little in this market, and it is generally thought that stocks in the country are-small also. The late demand cannot be much longer maintained, as the shipping-season is drawing to a close; indeed some of the parties lately in the market state that they are now done and will buy no more this season. Box loss have been coming forward very slowly, and really fine, well-packed qualities have been worth 11 to 13c, but inferior would not bring over 8c. Street receipts have been small and prices steady at 18 to 20c for good pound rolls, and 13 to 16c for tubs and crooks of choice dairy. ports of call from the fleet afloat on the 30th unit, between that date and Potrnary 28th, were 837,600 or of wheat, comprising 70,000 or from the fleet of the strong of

No. 3 worth from 56 to 57c f. o. c. Street prices, 58 to 51c.

SERDS.—Clover has been bought to some extent at $3.50 to $3.75 in lots, and dealers are selling at $3.90 to $4 per cental. Alsike is worth $7 in lots. Timothy is selling at $4.65 to $1.80, but no lots are offering.

Hay.—Pressed has remained inactive at nominally unchanged prices. Receipts on the market have decreased, but have been still amply sufficient; prices have shown little change, ranging from $7$ to $11.80, with the bulk selling at $3 to $10.

STRAW—Offerings have continued to be fully equal to the demand, and prices have remained easy at $5 for loose and $6 to $7$ for oak-straw in sheaves.

POTATOES.—Have continued to be scarce, firm and wanted; car-lots have sold at from 90 to 95c, the latter price being paid on Teseday for three cars of early rose. Street receints have been very small and prices firm at $1 per bag, with all offering wanted.

APPLES—Receipts have began to fall off slightly and there has been a ready sale for all offering, but still the range is from $1.25 to $1.75, unless for exceptionally fine, which may bring $2, and the general run about $1.50.

POULTEY—Offerings have been small and prices firmer; fowl have brought 55 to 66c and turkeys from 90 to $1.50. Ducks have not been offered, but would bring 70 to 75c; geess are worth 55 to 70c. Box lots have been offered very slowly, and are steady at 10c for turkeys and ducks and 5 to 6c for fowl and geese. FLOUR, f.o.c.
