DEATH OF A DOG THROUGH GRIEF.—A touching story comes from Memphis. An old man, Peter Reau by name, a well-digger in the locality for something like thirty years, had a dog of which he was very fond. Peter was a bachelor, and he lived a very lonely life. The only thing he tenderly fondled was the dog, who shared his bed, and who divided with his master the frugal meal. Well, the dog, which was nearly always by Peter's side, was large and powerful of frame, and was cheerful and playful in disposition. It seemed to love its master with that perfect, enduring love that crowds all less weighty objects from the heart. One day it was separated a few hours from the old man. Peter was patiently labouring at the bottom of the well, when he faintly heard the joyful bark of his favourite. He looked up; and there was a swift glance of recognition, and then the light went out of the well digger's eyes for ever. The eager rush of the dog to greet its master displaced a heavy bucket, and sent it crashing down upon Peter's head. A few minutes after the battleworn man was dragged to the surface a bleeding corpse. With piteous howls the faithful animal licked the ugly wounds, but the fond caress could not reanimate the fast stiffening body. The man was laid out in his shroud, but before the grave closed over the human form the dog was also dead. It had straddled itself before the cold clay of its master, and moaned out its life in grief.

THE ROYAL ALFRED ASHORE.—The flag ship Royal Alfred while in charge of two of the best pilots in Bermuda—men who have for years been employed in piloting men of war in and out of the harbor—ran ashore on the outside of the Narrows, near St. George's, Bermuda. Sixty feet of a false keel were torn away, and the bow of the vessel was indented. The Royal Alfred has been placed in dock for repairs. It is probable that she will not arrive in Halifax before the last of May or the beginning of June.—Halifax date.

The Reserve Dividend System

Is one more step in the march of progress. Presented only after mature thought, it invites the test of the severest scrutiny. Its chief merit is its PERFECT ADAPTABILITY to the wants of insurable lives. THE RESERVE DIVIDEND and RESERVE ENDOWMENT POLICIES originated and published by the Company's Actuary, under copyright in 1869. The principle involved renders every form of insurance a provision in life. It converts an ordinary life Policy, otherwise payable only in the event of death, into a CASH ENDOWMENT, MAURING EVERY TEN YEARS.
