Words of Wisdom.

The essence of true nobility is neglect of self. Let the thought of self pass in, and the beauty of a great action is gone, like the bloom from a soiled flower.

When one sin is admitted, it is generally found that it has a companion waiting at the door; and the former will work hard to gain admission for the latter.

Murmuring puts gall and wormwood into every cup of mercy that God gives into our hands. As to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet, so to the murmuring soul every sweet is bitter.

No man or woman of the humblest sort can really be strong, gentle, patient and good, without the world being better for his, without somebody being helped and comforted by the very existence of that goodness.

Observe a tree how it first tends downward, that it may shoot forth upward. Is it not from humanity that it endeavors to rise? There are those who grow up into the air, without at first growing at the root. This is not growth, but downfall.

It cannot be too often repeated that it is not the so-called blessings of life, its sunshine and calm and pleasant experiences, that strengthen and help us, but its storms, tempests, and trials. Early adversity, especially, is often a blessing in disguise.

Every real and searching effort at self-improvement is of itself a lesson of profound humility. For we cannot move a step without learning and feeling the waywardness, the weakness, the vacillation of our movements, or without desiring to be set upon the Rock that is higher than ourselves.

The lines of suffering on almost every human countenance have been deepened, if not traced there, by unfaithfulness of conscience, by departures from duty. To do wrong is the surest way to bring suffering; no wrong deed ever failed to bring it. Those sins which are followed by no palpable pain are yet terribly avenged in this life.

We all of us complain of the shortness of time, and yet have much more than we know what to do with. Our lives are passed either in doing nothing at all, or in doing nothing to the purpose, or in doing nothing that we ought to do. We are always complaining that our days are few, and acting as though there would be no end of them.

When death, the great reconciler, has come, it is never our tenderness that we repent of, but our severity. This we should bear in mind and by keeping bitter words from our lips, drive them from our hearts. Love we can never regret, but hate may fill all our lives with bitterness. Then let us cultivate love, which is the "charity" of Christian goodwill.

Habit is a cable. We have the thread of it every day, and at length we cannot break it. The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt, until they are too strong to be broken. To one who murmured because he rebuked him for a small matter, Plato replied: "Custom is no small matter. A custom or habit of life does frequently alter the natural inclination for good or evil."

The Syndicate Have the Best of the Bargain.

Referring to the distribution between the different sections, he estimated the total cost of constructing the eastern 900 miles of the central section at $10,800,000. The cash subsidy to be paid for this section was $9,000,000, leaving a sum to be provided otherwise than by the act of only $1,800,000 for the construction of that 900 miles. To meet that dreadful deficit the burden of compensation provided by the economic Government benefit of the public interest was 11,250,000 acres of choice land, which, at the estimate of $2 an acre, would make $22,500,000 in money, or an excess over the cost of upwards of $20,000,000 on this section alone. This section could be built out of the land it held, and through land which was sure to pay, and yet it was proposed to heap upon the back of this section the burden of building the two ends of the line. Taking the western part of this central section, comprising 450 miles, its estimated cost would be $18,200,000, cash to be provided, $6,000,000, leaving a deficiency to be met out of the lands of twelve millions. The land subsidy of 7,500,000 acres would be worth fifteen millions, leaving a margin, thought not so large as in the eastern end of the section. He proceeded to deal in the same manner with the eastern section, making an elaborate calculation to compare the cost of the railway with the amount of subsidy granted, showing that under the arrangement proposed in the syndicate's bargain the surplus of the eastern section was diminished, while that of the central section was exhausted. Therefore of the Lake Superior line were after a time abandoned the company would have made themselves millionaires out of large bonuses given for building the prairie section long before the time of abandonment. The practical result was that the prairie section, which could be built easily, was to be built at the public cost in cash. The Minister of Railways congratulated himself on this arrangement, because he wanted the road built quickly. As it would inconvenience his friends, the members of the Syndicate, to find the cash, he provided it for them, thus giving them every chance to build the road as fast as possible. "What thou doest, do quickly," (Cheers and laughter.) Could this action be defended if the real intention was in business like way to secure the construction of the whole road? Hon. gentleman opposite claimed that they had a full guarantee for the construction. They wanted to deny that the prairie line would be an enormously profitable line, but the aggregation of profit on lands would show the result to be dollars as the construction of this line. They were of course in a position to build it fast, for every twenty miles they built gave them a moderate fortune delivered into their hands. Seeing the millions they would be sure to get out of this section they could well afford to put one million into the hands of the Government.—Hon. Edward Blake's speech.

Taking their Pick of the Best Land.

The total value of the lands extending back from the Government railway in their different ranges at the price fixed by the Government last year would be $101,000,000. In the present case, seeing that the lands were to be taken in alternate blocks, and that certain sections were appropriated for the Hudson Bay Company and for school lands and so forth, there were not left 25,000,000 acres of land of the prime quality which alone this company would condense to take within the 24-mile belt. They might then, if they pleased, choose the best lands in the Northwest, within the limit prescribed on each side of a certain line. So it might not unfairly be said that the privilege given to these persons to choose the choicest spots in the territory would make the remainder of the 25,000,000 acres which they might select outside of the 24-mile belt equal in value to the land which might be found within that limit.—Hon. Edward Blake's speech.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Hudson, headmaster of Bayfield public school, and who was recently re-elected for next year, talks of leaving on account of the sickness of his friends. He lost a brother a short time ago, and another member of the family is seriously ill. Mr. Hudson is very highly thought of, and his removal would be much regretted.

The by-law granting $5,000 to the Grand Trunk Railroad for the purpose of bringing the Toronto, Grey and Bruce into Wingham, was voted on in the township of Turnberry, on Friday, and carried by a majority of 158.

WASECA, Minn., April 5th, 1879.

SPENCERVILLE, ONT., Feb. 26, 1880. We have much pleasure in certifying that we have kept Perry Davis' Pain-Killer constantly in stock for upwards of twenty years, during which time it has taken the lead in most of our patent preparations, and has become an old, reliable family medicine. No effort is required now on our part to sell it, as it is as staple an article as flour in our trade.

Yours truly,
W. P. EMBRE & CO.

A Lady's Wish. "Oh, how I wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily do so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe."

Good for Babies. We are pleased to say that our baby was permanently cured of a serious prostration of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength.—The Parents, University ave., Rochester, N. Y. See another column.

Cure of Draining. A young friend of mine was cured of an insupportable thirst for liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it.—From a leading R. R. Official, Chicago, Illinois.

New York Butter Market. In reporting the market prices for butter, the New York Tribune, of May 20th, said, "Choice packages of the best cream reach 19 to 20 cents, but light colored goods are hard to dispose of, and several lots were thought well sold at 8 to 10 cents. This stern logic of dollars and cents is rapidly convincing dairymen that they should use the best colored butter color made by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt. It gives the perfect June color the year round and dairymen that use it never send light colored goods to market.

THE DAYS OF MISERY AND NIGHTS OF UNREST endured by the sufferer from a persistent cough soon sap the vitality of the system and wreck the constitution. Such a catastrophe can only be avoided by precautionary measures. Prevent the climax of a cough with Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda—approved in professional quarters, and which is a combination of the purest and most salutary ingredients in perfect chemical harmony. Coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, and other affections of the respiratory organs, are speedily relieved by it, and it has likewise proved to be a most specific in all serious pulmonary diseases. The loss of strength consequent upon being diseased is checked, and the flagging physical energies restored by its invigorating action. Phosphorus, the active principle of the hypophosphites, not only supplies the system with an important element of strength, but gives a healthful impetus to the circulation. The lime and soda also add to vigor of the frame. In wasting diseases of all kinds, this preparation can be depended upon to produce a beneficial effect. A fair persistent trial is all that is necessary to prove its potency, either as a pulmonary or general invigorant. For poverty of the blood, with which so many invalids are troubled, it is a sovereign remedy, promoting the acquisition of high strength and flesh. Prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, and sold by all druggists.

AS SCRELY AS EFFECT FOLLOWS CAUSE so surely will disease eventually fasten itself upon a system deficient in vital energy, if tonic medication is not resorted to in time. The necessary tendency of a weak discharge of the functions of the body is to disorder its organs.—Invigoration, prompt and thorough, is the only safeguard. Norenavant of depleted physical energy, no restorative of lost flesh, nerve power and all ailments, ailments clearly demonstrated its efficacy than Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine. In this preparation, associated with the salutary medicines which forms its basis, is pure sherry wine and certain aromatic constituents which imparts an agreeable taste to the article, and gives additional emphasis to its effects. In cases of general debility and dyspepsia it is invaluable and the desired effect is, in the vast majority of cases, remarkably prompt as well as decisive. That good natural appetite, which gives a relish for the coarsest fare, is insured by the use of the Quinine Wine, which also confers brain soothing and body refreshing sleep. Fever and ague and bilious remittent fever, are diseases to the eradication of which it is especially adapted, but it should be used only in the intervals between the seizures. The far-reaching effects of a good tonic, in all complaints involving loss of physical energy, are well understood by physicians, and the comprehensive influence for good of this preparation upon the system goes far to bear out the professional belief in the value of invigorants as opponents of disease. Be sure to ask for the "Quinine Wine" prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto. Sold by all druggists.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT.—A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre P. O., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, West Shefford, P. O., writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I think it is equally as good for horse as man." A. Maybe, Merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Electric Oil and it is pronounced by the public, one of the best medicines they have ever used; it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence." Joseph Rusan, Township of Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for a lane knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."

Beware of Imitations.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottles, and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHROP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.

See what Physicians and the People say about SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND HYPOPHOSPHITES, as a remedy for Consumption, Scrophulous, and Wasting Affections.

Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE, GENTLEMEN: I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, etc., in my practice and used it in my family. I am greatly pleased with it because of its palatability and the good results that follow its use. I have found it very serviceable in scrophulous diseases and pulmonary affections. Respectfully yours,

J. R. A. O. THOMPSON, M.D., 20 East Broadway, N.Y.

For the last fifteen months I have used your Cod Liver Oil Emulsion, both in hospital and in private practice, and have been greatly benefited by its effect. It is better borne and can be taken for a longer time than any other preparation of Cod Liver Oil. In consumptive and other diseases it has proved itself especially valuable.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF MODERN TIMES! The Pills Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels and are invaluable in complaints incident to Females. The Ointment is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Rheumatism, Brightness, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Headaches and all Skin Diseases, it has no equal.

BEWARE OF AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS.—I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the Public generally to the fact that certain Houses in New York, and elsewhere, are sending to my place, the globe of the AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS of my Pills and Ointment. These frauds bear on their labels some address in New York, and do not allow my Medicine to be sold in any part of the United States, unless an Agent there. My Medicines are only made by me, at 25 Oxford Street, London. In the Book of directions affixed to the bottles is also a caution warning the Public against being deceived by counterfeits. Do not be misled by this audacious trick, as they are the counterfeiters they pretend to denounce. These counterfeiters are purchased by unprincipled Vendors at one-half the price of my Pills and Ointment and are sold to you as my genuine medicines. I most earnestly appeal to that sense of justice which I feel sure will induce you upon asking from all honorable persons, to assist me, and the Public, as far as may lie in their power, in denouncing this shameful fraud. Each Box and all the contents of the same, bears the British Government Stamp with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, LONDON," engraved thereon. On the label is the address, 57 Oxford Street, London, where alone they are manufactured. Holloway's Pills and Ointment, bearing any other address, are counterfeit. The Trade Marks of these Medicines are registered in Ottawa. Hence any one throughout the British Possessions, who may keep the American Counterfeits for sale, will be prosecuted, unless THOMAS HOLLOWAY, Oxford Street, London, Jan. 1, 1879.
