ALBERTA'S CHAMPION

count Mr. Burn will win the Marath- ary. on. So hope we all.

AN ONSLAUGHT ON EDMONTON Edmonton is indebted for doing what Not only so-he took the occasion, made the occasion, to say so when Edmonton was not the subject under consideration, and when the price of its real estate had absolutely nothing to do with the matter of dispute. The House was in committee discussing an item for erecting a public building in a Manitoba town. To the argument that the site costs more than would have cost in an Ontario town of the same size a member responded that real estate prices in Western towns were generally higher than in similar sized Ontario towns, and cited Edmonton, where he had been quoted $700 per foot for main street lots

"the boom and that the boom bas fallen out. You cannot judge of the "Northwest by boom prices, and I "do not think it is fair to advance an "argument of that kind, especially "when my hon, friend got the price "just at the top of the boom. Every-"body knows that you can, buy land "at Edmonton at a very much les-"figure than my honorable friend has "quoted." A member interjected "Not in the centre of the city," t which Mr. Ward replied: "Well, this

"same land." Now it may or may not have been advisable to provide Dauphin with post office and the price charged fo the lot may or may not have been higher than would be charged for similarly situated lot in a similarly situated Ontario town, but what o earth this has to do with the value of real estate in Edmonton passe understanding, Such comparison, are of course always allowable if fair ly made and in a manner not hasmful to the communities. But when neith. er honest nor harmless they are odi ous, and the odium of them rest. upon the author, Mr. Ward's fling a Edmonton was not true, and if it i not harmful the fault will not lie with collapse a waiting world would scarce ly have to learn the news from Mr Ward. If it is not in that condition Mr. Ward has done a wrong to th city which he should admit, and so far as he can do so, amend. It is not in that condition and in making the contrary statement Mr. Ward either did not know what he was talking about or he did know. If he did no know he had no business holding such damaging language toward this city. If he did know he must plead guilty either to a malicious desire to injur Edmonton or to a willingness to do so in the hope of scoring a point against a political opponent; in either event at the sacrifice of the truth
