Masonic Dance.

ST. VALENTINE CELEBRATED.

St. Valentine's Night was fittingly celebrated by the Masonic Entertainment Committee, who held the most enjoyable of all their many successful dances. Tuesday's dance was the fourth of the season, and it was impossible owing to the demand for tickets, to supply one half the limited space, to the floor of the spacious banquet room was in excellent condition for dancing. The decorations consisted only of multi-coloured balloons, which were suspended from the ceiling, and were later allowed to float down among the dancers. The orchestra was delightful and played the most intricate selections in excellent time. All the dances were loudly endorsed and in many cases, two and three encores had to be given. The Valentine dances were especially popular, and largely contributed to the amusement of the dancers. In the first, the men had to find their partners by matching a symbol on the backs of their programmes. The second was an elimination dance. In this dance, too, the men did not know who their partners would be. Prizes were offered for the winners of this dance and were awarded to Mr. Cyril Duley and Mrs. W. D. Gunn. A Valentine was presented to Mrs. Tasker Cook, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, by Mr. D. McFarlane, on behalf of the Entertainment Committee. Supper was served in the billiard room by the Ladies' Auxiliary, whose catering has won well merited praise. The Masonic Orchestra under the direction of Mr. E. Fox, and the Entertainment Committee, and particularly Messrs. F. H. Ellis, F. J. Wornell and J. Cocker, four managers, are to be congratulated upon having added one more success to their already lengthy list.

Championship Ice Sports

EVENTS WELL CONTESTED.

Every event in the Championship Ice Sports held at the Prince's Rink on Tuesday night was well contested, over 2700 were present. The championship races were especially interesting, and although there were only two entrants for the veterans' race, this too, created considerable enthusiasm. The affair was carried out under the management of Mr. A. H. Thomas, who was assisted by Messrs. G. Marshall, M. Churchill, J. C. Parsons, P. Dobbin, E. Churchill and C. Hall. The following was the list of events and the winners:—

Social and Concert.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild a delightful entertainment was held in George Street Methodist Church school room last evening. High tea was served at 6 p.m., and at its conclusion a splendid concert was given. The following is the programme:—

Pianoforte Duet:—Miss Oates and Mr. Lee.

Solos by Mr. W. A. Tucker, Mr. H. T. Courtenay, Mrs. G. Christian.

Recitation:—Mrs. Messias.

Duet:—Messrs. Pittman.

Piano Solo:—Miss T. Power.

Duet:—Mrs. Garland and Miss Maunder.

Violin Solo:—Mrs. B. E. S. Dunfield.

Another pleasing feature of the evening was a magic lantern exhibition, showing some very fine local views. The show was given by Rev. Mr. Fairbairn and included scenes from his last circuit in Nova Scotia, together with photos taken by himself on his way down from Halifax to St. John's by the S.S. "Rosalind." The ladies of the Guild and the joint chairman, Rev. Mr. Fairbairn and Mr. R. F. Horwood, are to be congratulated on the success of the affair.

Dinner and Smoker.

CITY CLUB WILL ENTERTAIN MASONS.

The winners of the recent Masonic vs. City Club Billiard Tournament are being dined to-night at the Osborne Restaurant by the City Club players. Following the dinner which takes place at 7.15, a smoker is being held at the City Club, and members of both Clubs are invited. A splendid programme of music under the direction of the Masonic Orchestra has been prepared and the affair promises to be most enjoyable.
