Delightfully Fragrant

has a pure, fresh flavor beyond compare. Ask for a package today.

The Heir to Beecham Park

CHAPTER XXX.

hope for me?"

ever, it has come at last!"

[THE END.]

LORD MORDEN'S

DAUGHTEP

CEDARS

CHAPTER II.

Then he door closed, and he heard

"I am rested now, and I think I | "I will come to-morrow and see how will make a start."

Margery walked to the little window and looked out. The wind was raging again, my lady!"just as fiercely as ever, and the rain was beating furiously against the door The small, homely room seemed lady," urged Mrs. David. "I'll have it the sun." Stuart drew the door after a few other things." ready in an instant."

Margery shook her head. "No thank you, Mrs. David; I must his.

be gone. I will-" A sharp knock came at the door, sheltered spot, and then stood looked round so that nothing could be like stars in the passion of his love. seen but her back, draped in the hood to the door.

"It is you, sir! Come in and welcome! He's sleeping sound now, sir. raised her love-lit eyes to his. Ah, Heaven give you happiness, as you have given it to me to-day!"

A curious sensation stole over Mar gery's heart—a sensation that brought a vague touch of joy. The next moment the joy increased, for a voice spoke the tones of which recalled ali the golden dream of her early love.

It was Stuart, her lover! Her hands clasped together, were clasped against her throbbing heart her lius murmured his name silently; but still the THE TRAGEDY OF THE stood motionless; and Stuart's eye went from the unknown woman in the hood and cloak to the child.

"He's all right now, Mrs. David; there is no fever. You will have him as jolly as ever in a day or two."

"Oh, thank you, sir! And you your self, sir-you ain't got no harm?" "Not a bit," laughed Stuart, cheerly.

"Sea water does not hurt me; I am thanks, the touch of her soft fingers of two at sea, you know. It is rough whole being. weather, though, to-day, Mrs. David.'

"That it is, sir. Here's her lady- the bolt shot from within. ship, sir, quite done up by the wind. She's honored me with resting a

Stuart stared. How blind he had mistress was safe indoors. been! How could be have overlooked restrain his joy. And Margery? In would have deemed unsafe at any room. a moment her doubts, her sad mis- other time. givings vanished; she knew that her dow and put out her hand.

limbs were trembling. "He is my not a mere dabbler in the healing art, by his inhumanity." cousin." "Your ladyship's cousin?" exclaim- Captain Deene the next day.

ed the woman, in surprise. "Oh, sır, I've told my lady all about it."

Margery, as she drew her hand from gery who know anything about it, while he murmured: Stuart's firm clasp.

"Brave! I did nothing. But, come cousin-you ought to be going. Shall I see you home? Will you let me?" "If you please."

Margery bent and kissed the child to borrow a case of instruments. I this strange old man." David.

"I am sure of that, Mr. Locksley," the doctor said.

In a very short time the young surgeon had rejoined Esther, and was being driven rapidly back to Captain Deene's cottage.

"It is a pity the man was away," he observed, "I do not like the idea of eaving Miss Deene alone so far from help."

"There is nothing to hart her, frowned Esther. "It is the master you should be thinking about "

Locksley did not reply, but he could not help feeling anxious unti! he saw Dora's graceful figure in the doorway of the cottage lamp in hand. turn of the carriage, and had opened he door the moment the wheels had crunched through the drive Locksley sprang out, his instru ments under his arm, savinghe is. Don't forget to send to-night," "We are here, safe and sound, Miss Deene. Your grandfather has not "I will not, thank you again and Margery smiled, and walked to the sudden illumined by a strange, you please ask your housekeeper to "Let me give you some tea, my mysterious light, golden and strong as attend me? I want warm water and "Esther will be busy with the pony them then put out his hand without a word, and Margery placed her own in for some time," replied Dora. "Shall I not do as well? I promise to obey He led her from the cottage to a all orders." She smiled faintly, and again that and for some strange reason she mov- ing down at her with eyes that shone throb of exquisite rapture pulsed "Margery," he said, quietly, "I have He bowed, for he dared not trus and cloak, while Mrs. David bustled come to you. Have you no word of himself to speak, and ran lightly up> stairs to the injured man's room. In a moment he became the cool and She stood silent for an instant, then collected surgeon, as with bared arms "One word." she whispered-"stay! he set about the task before him. "My darling, my own, my own for-Siff and sore as his hands were the movements of his deft and skillful fingers were as light as those of a woman. The leg was set and the fractured skull dressed, and then > > satisfaction. He had worked as much for the approval of Miss Deene as for the welfare of her grandfather.

Locksley sat down with a sigh of

"I must not leave him," he told her, "until he has slept off the effects of my sedative, and that will not be for some hours You and the housekeeper may retire with the satisfac-The young man had forgotten that tion that he is in no danger. he was bareheaded until Miss Dora Dora was glad to hear this, and ran to the carriage with a hat be- suddenly remembered that the young longing to her grandfather, and when doctor must be hungry as well as he took it from her, murmuring his tired. "Yes," he said, "I should like a litused to it. I have been in a gale sent an electric shock through his tie supper, but prefer to have it where I can watch my patient. If he wakes suddenly he may try to jump out of bed, and that would never do."

This appeared to satisfy Esther, for Miss Deene went away, and in a litshe touched the pony sharply with the tle while Esther brought up some whip when assured that her young cold meat and bread, and a bottle of

The little animal had plenty of life She set down the tray with a grunt that slender figure? His heart burn- and fire in it, and sped along the dark looked critically at her master, scowled within his breast, he could hardly uneven road at a pace that Locksley ed at Locksley, and walked out of the

"A queer servant and a queer mast-"Take me to the doctor who usually er," thought the young man, as he love lived again in all its strength and attends the family," was all that he hungrily attacked the food. "I wonsweetness. It had been clouded, not said to the housekeeper, and within der what mystery hangs about the overcome. She moved from the win- twenty minutes he was in the local place? and why I should bring a curse practitioner's surgery, explaining the to so isolated a spot? By Jove! his "I know this gentleman, Mrs. nature of Captain Deene's injuries. words were prophetic, though he David," she said, steadily, though her He satisfied the doctor that he was brought all the trouble upon himself and invited that gentleman to visit He glanced at the sleeping man, and his heart softened. The face was It was a relief to the Deal doctor full of lines of care and suffering. that brings you closer to my heart! that his presence was not necessary Then he thought of the beautiful in the conduct of an operation, for girl who called the old seaman grand-"How brave you were!" murmured there are few men who profess sur- father, and his heart quickened.

"I feel that she is my fate, and l "I have my diploma from Guy's," thank Heaven for the chance that has exclaimed Locksley. "I have travel- thrown me in her path, terribie ed to the Soudan in the capacity of though it seemed at one time serious army surgeon, and have come to you as the consequences have been to softly, then put out her hand to Mrs. can assure you that your patient shall | Just then there was a gentle tap at the door, and Miss Deene entered the room softly, and almost timidly. "I have come to thank you," she > said, "and to kiss grandpa goodnight Mr.-Mr.-" "Locksley, Edmund Locksley," the young surgeon said, quickly "You must not thank me, Miss Deene. You must not thank the one who has caused all the trouble." "Oh, I am sure that you are not to blame," she replied, with a hot blush.

"You have a manner-I mean you are a gentleman, and grandpa is so strange!" A grean came from the injured man and Locksley saw that they were be ing watched (To be continued.)

A raised, padded sign of the mater ial, trims a coat of natural kasha. I is used for front border, cuffs and

CONFEDERATION LIFE ASSOCIATION Tear off this Coupon and Mail Now

Dugald Munn & Ernest Fox Muir Bldg.-Water St. ST. JOHN'S . NFLD. Please send me, without obligation on my part, particulars of your Profit Paying Address ..

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

VERTICAL

2-Relating to one of the con-

5-British protectorate in E. Africa

7-A Roman lyric poet (65-8 B. C.)

6-A country of Europe (abbr.)

8-Personal pronoun (old form)

13-Quantity of medicine prescribed

22-An eight-armed terror of the 27-A hooded cape formerly worn

30-A name given to various snakes

33-An Arab's eleeveless haircloth

34-Title of married women (abbr.)

43-The young of one of the birds

81-Pungent sauce used on rice

36—A hint, suggestion 42—Study or science of eggs

46-A tiny much-loved bird

54-Point of compass (abbr.)

58-Mountain range of Central

56-One circuit around a race track

"FRASER" ENGINES

AND

All Replacement Parts

Manufactured by

MacKAY & FRASER, LTD.

New Glasgow, Nova Scotia.

Rhinestones stud the bateau necl

Write for circular and parts

1-A kind of sweet potato

tinents 3-Execute

10-To add

11-Girl's name

16-To beat, pound

by monks

and meats

garment

48-To fly lightly

Europe

60-A large cask (abbr.)

82-Prefix, form of "ad"

49-Girl's name

61-Related

53-Soent

28-A city of Egypt

4-Personal pronoun

HORIZONTAL 1-An Asiatic bovine ruminant 4-Proud 9-A sheep's ory

12-To one side 14—Man's name (abbr.) 15-To make correction in a document 17-An island of the Cyclades group, Greece 19-Girl's name

20-In addition 21-Silent 22-Preposition - 1941 25-First two lett of Greek d used as an emblem of Christ

A skilled military aviator

asea

24—An inhabited island touching the Arctic circle 32-Kind of drum used in Africa 26-To feign and oriental countries. 35-To bring forward for consideration 38-Island made famous by St. J9-Track made by wheel in 40-Horses that move with a -Rank, station 2—Single 44—Musical note 47-The present day 49-Any year after time of Christ (abbr.) 80-Underdone 52-Lump of earth 54—Japanese drink macs 7. 577 55—Foolish conduct 57-Product of mental activity 59—To serve scantily 61—Scotch spelling of "go" 62—Circular island inclosing a lagoon 63—A protuberance 64—Secret, hidden 65—A corded fabric

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle,

MINARD'S LINIMENT FOR COLDS. time and armholes of a simple dance frock of flesh-colored georgette.

(Canadian Press), March.-Eight years of Prohibition was replaced month ago by a system of legalized sale under government control in to such an extent that any other those sections of Newfoundland in which the people desired it and a reindicate that the change has brought nity or national independence. T no disastrous results nor has there pieness to all the more remarkable as I been any apparent increase in the Herzog, the South African Premier, consumption of liquor. The drastic nature of the punishment meted out to offenders under the new act are believed to have acted as a deterrent and violations so far have all been restricted to first offences. On one ocnyiction the offender is placed on a "blacklist" and on his next conviction he is liable to a fine of from $200.00 to $1,000.00 or a sentence of three to six months. Fifty Retired Britons names have already been placed on the blacklist and only one has appeared the second time

Prohibition came into force with An influential committee, including little opposition by a plebiscite held Genearl John Maxwell, Lord Meston 'Phone 1960. in 1916. Appealed to to agree to the Forell, Sir Henry McMahon, Lady prohibition of liquor as a war mea- Francis Ryder and Sir Roland Boune sure the people responded with the has been formed in England, to ensame readiness that characterized the courage Empire community settle enlistment of Newfoundland men for ment in the Dominions of people be overses service Those who chiest- longing to the retired professions ed to the measure, regardless of how llasses, or those with small fixed i much they spoke against it, refrain- comes. ed in large numbers from casting while Newfoundland people for the much interest. The committee b most part are not heavy drinkers, the lieves that many thousands of these very nature of their existence de- Britishers will welcome an oppo manding that they maintain clearness | tuinty to settle with people of the of head and eve and full possession own class in the Dominion w of their faculties, there were many they could supplement their fix violations of the Prohibition Act until finally it was being openly flouted. When the Monroe Party appealed the Overseas Settlement Com to the electorate in the Spring of 1924, one of the promises made was that in the event of being elected, the Prohibition Act would be repealed and the principle of an alternative measure enacted. In the session which followed, the Alcoholic Liquors Act was placed on the Statute Books in spite of strong protest on the part of the "drys." Last November when the Prime Minister and the Minister of Marine and Fisheries had to submit themselves to their constituents for re election, the Opposition played largely upon the Prohibition issue, and the champions of the prohibitive measure backed them strongly. The two Ministers were returned with greater majorities than those secured in the general elections, and on Feb ruary 3 of this year the liquor shops were opened in St. John's. In most particulars the new system is practically the same as that in operation in Quebec Province All control is vested in a Board of Control consisting of a chairman, apointed during good behaviour, and members appointed at pleasure. In the city of St. John's there are two distributing centres where any adult may buy a bottle a day. Licenses are granted grocery stores, hotels and restaurants to sell wines and beers on trains and boats, under control. A branch liquor store may he opened in any district in which s majority of the people vote for its un waiting to be served, and not of any unusual nature occurred nark the restoration of the privile Police records show a most satis tory state of affairs, and any fringements have been pro with rigor and the people have wholesome respect for the penalties that have been prepared those who show any desire to ab the new liberty that has been gran those who desire the public sale

When the doors of the liquor stor

pened February 3 there was no

Boer and Empire "STAND TOGETHER OR HANG SEPARATELY."

Mr. C. J. Pienaar, the South Africa Commissioner for Commerce on Continent, made a remarkable speed according to Reuter, at a banque given in his honour by the Rotterdan Chamber of Commerce. In a eulogy of the British Empire he said it was dif ficult for anyone who had not grow up in the atmosphere of the gradua growth of the Imperial Constitu to appreciate it. It was not the worl of a year or a few years; it was thing that had grown as gradua and as imperceptibly as a tree. T sowing and the germination of the seed was also as unobtrusive and as imperceptible. We who had seen it growth during all its stages did feel surprised when he saw its mination in the fully-grown tree standing before us. The Imperial relationship was a thing unique in the history of the world. The position could best be described as an hereditary bond, partnership or confederation of free nations; or, better still, a "British Imperial League of Nations, each one enjoying absolute freedom of action. Alluding to the perils of sucl a free convention in time of war, he added: Of course, such power should be exercised with the greatest car tion; but their instincts not only of self-preservation, but of justice, se timent, and loyalty to one anoth would always guide each one of ther to do just the right thing at the right oment. We know instuitively tha The Liquor Act in Effect we must stand together or otherwise each may hang separately. So fr and elatsic, and yet so strong, are the bands which hold us together that one can possibly conceive of a progres sive development at some future country would be able to join league without feeling any loss of di

Urged to Settle

Many Britishers in this class, nov living in Italian and French Rivieras The war over a reaction set in and attended recent meetings and showed incomes by open air occupations: . The movement has the approval

PAINS ACROSS

Relieved by Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound Mitchell, Ontario. - "I have taken

Mitchell, Ontario.—"I have take your medicine for a number of year I do not take it steady all the timbut I am never without it. I alway keep it in the house. I took it fir for pains in the abdomen and bearing down pains, headaches and pair across the back. I have my home look after and many a day I could no get up at all. I saw the advertise get up at all. I saw the advertise ment in the paper about Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, an Mrs. John Miller told me about it, too Every time I take it, it makes m feel better and I always recommen it to my friends. I am willing to an swer letters from women asking about this reddicine and your way use this twerletters from women asking about his medicine and you may use this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. F. J. Wassmann, Mitchell, Ontario.

The merit of Lydia E. Pinkham' Vegetable Compound is told by women to each other. Many women to each other. Many women to each other will do and they are anxious for otherstoknow. Such testimony should be a such as a su otherstoknow. Such testimony sicause any woman suffering fron troubles so common to her sex to this well-known medicine a fair. Do you know that in a recent yass among women users of the etable Compound over 220,000 re were received. To the ques "Have you received benefit by ing this medicine?" 98 per cent plied "Yes." This means 98 o every 100 wereen are in better he because they have given this med

A LENTEN LIST OF GROCERIES.

Ellis & Co. Ltd 203 Water St.

Dried Evap. Pears. Dried Evap. Peaches. Dried Evap. Prunes. Dried Evap. Apples. Jams and Jellies. Canned and Bottled Fruit.

Fresh Cranberries.

French Sardines in Oil. French Sardines in Tomate. French Boneless Sardines. French Curled Anchovies in Oil Anchovy Sauce.

Royans a la Bordelaise Hors D'Oeuvre. (in Blocks of 6 tins). Findon Haddock. Marinated Herring. Kippered Herring. Herring in Tomato. Clam Chowder. Fresh Clams. Dry Shrimps. Dry Prawns.

Tuna Fish (equal to Chicken) No. 1 Pack Lobster. No. 1 Pack Salmon. esh Cove Oysters. Sardine Paste. Shrimp Paste. Anchovy Paste. Bloater Paste. Salmon Paste.

Fresh Herring.

Fresh Smoked Kippers. Smoked Salmon Fillets. Finnan Haddies. Labrador Herring. Fresh Frozen Cod.

Fresh Blue Point Ovsters.

Household Furniture Real Estate

and Merchandise of every desc turned into cash quickly, at Perciulis Auction Rooms, Adelaide Street, aw-WHAT HAVE YOU TO SELL!

W. E. PERCIVAL, Auctioneer

KIELLEY'S DRUG STORE SPECIALS:

The following Soaps at a frac-ion above landed cost. Erasmic Cannon Ball, cake 15c. dozen Erasmic De Luxe, 45c. cake, now Erasmic Belle de Nuit, 75c. cake, now Erasmic Bal Masque, 35c. cake, now ... Erasmic Gaiety, 15c. cake. Erasmic Violette, 50c. cake, 35c. now Erasmic Carbolic and Glycodbury's Refill Shaving Stick, large size olgate Shaving Cream . Jennen's Shaving Cream hnson's Shaving Cream . Ival's Shaving Cream ... Prasmic Shaving Cream, large Porcelain Pots, now 60c. Woodbury's Facial Soap ... Miss Dainty Soap 12c.

Water Street East. eb3.1vr

"FRASER" ENGINES

Fit up your "Fraser" Engine or the coming fishing season nd order any needed parts from Jackay & Fraser, LTD. New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. Write for circular and price st.

An unusual coat of black kasha has black and white plaid front and a achable collar of white fur,

lows Britis pore Impo YPTIAN P

issolut

ollowing Zagloul I the cham w Egyptian day, the m nation which ept. Premi ved Parlian EGYPT'S Egypt ed at ten ith much ce d ceased to night. The shortest he collapse victory ni Pasha, w t the resul forded his on for form came wit er Zagloul gloul was pr mber of the he House w en Premier llowed by en holding ence Ziwar parliamen TRIBUT

he nation reign and ent to-da pathy and ice rende great state Kedleston, ry highest lament

ed friend

"California Dependab Sich

mar13,151

Suffered for 12 Years" Mrs. Murray Hough, Wiarton, Ont., writes: "I had eczema for twelve years. Every once in a while it would break out and spread all over my arms. I tried all kinds of treatments to relieve it, but without success. One Spring it broke out and nothing gave me relief, even the salve I got from doctor did no good. At last I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment and it healed the eczema in a short time. That is over a year ago, and I have had no return of the trouble."

"Eczema All Over Arms

only as a theoretical science.

not suffer in my hands."

Dr. Chase's Ointment

ts. a box, all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., To GERALD S. DOYLE, Distributor