COUNCIL LETS CONTRACTS

Tenders for Cement Culvert on Sarnia Road Let.

The special committee of the county council which is letting tenders for county bridges let several contracts on Saturday.

Charles Ferguson received the contract for building a cement culvert on the Sarnia road for $295.

The Sarnia Bridge Company got the contract for the bridge opposite Con. 4, London Township, and between Lobo and London Township, the price being $300 for concrete work and $195 for the steel.

F. E. L. Talbot will get $435 for putting in a concrete floor and painting the Melbourne bridge, and $590 for a bridge opposite Lot 27, Con. 16, between London and Biddulph.

The Lambeth Concrete Company received the contract for concrete work on the Delaware and Westminster bridge for $635, the Sarnia Bridge Company getting the steelwork for $214.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Present Rural Play That Pleases Large Audiences.

The Princess Theatre stock company played to large audiences Monday and Tuesday, when they presented "The Minister's Wife." The play is one of rural life and, judging by the applause, was particularly well received by the audiences. The scenes are laid in Poseyville, Ind. The play will be repeated at each performance this week. The feature film, "Power of Prayer," tells a story that will appeal to all who see it. The orchestra will be in attendance afternoon and evening.

WOODMEN MEETING.
