Beebe Was Pounded All Over the Lot for Ten Runs in Three Innings, But Boldt Finished Game and Held Petes Scoreless-Bierbauer Hurt.

Peterboro, Aug. 20.—It took two hours and fifteen minutes for the Petes to defeat London this afternoon by 10 to 8. Although the locals took an early lead of three runs on Hilliard's circuit wallop down the first base line, and hit Beebe in the third for seven more counters, Penfold and Belting, who opposed him were wild, and after their half of the ninth the visitors had cut down the lead to two runs.

Iffth two more were added, Linneborn doubled amd Matteson singled. Reidy was passed, filling the bases, Stewart popped to Brant, but Dunlop's single scored Linneborn, while Matteson was caught trying to get to the plate. Neale was passed and the bases filled, Deneau was also passed and Reidy forced in. Smith flied out and ended the inning, however.

Trout came in on Byrne's single. Thompson doubled and Swartz counted, Byrne being nailed at the plate trying to come in, Neale making the throw. Penfold sent up a high one that both Bierbauer and Stewart went after. They collided and both were rendered unconscious.
Stewart was able to continue the game
later but Bierbauer had to retire and ninth the visitors had cut down the lead to two runs.

Bierbauer and Stewart collided when both went after a fly ball, and the former had to retire from the game. Fox was banished from the grounds for disputing a decision. President Fitzgerald and two big league scouts saw the game.

A Disastrous Inning.

The Petes put the game on ice in the third, when seven runs were garnered off Beebe. Brant was passed, and Rowan was safe when Linneborn dropped Smith's throw. Fox fanned, but Hilliard was walked, filling the bases. Trout singled and scored Brant and Rowan.
