SOME MAY PAY INCREASE

Will Consult Other Factory Owners, However, Before So Doing.

The cigar manufacturers of the city received by mail Friday afternoon the "new bill" on scale of prices sent out by the Cigarmakers Local, 278, of this

The increase asked by the men ranges from $1.50 to $3.50 on a thousand cigars made, certain brands demanding greater skill in rolling, and making the price asked higher.

We have the matter under consideration and will decide whether we will meet the demands of the men or not before their new 'bill' becomes effective on August 25," said one manufacturer n answer to a reporter's question as to what action he would take.

I have read over carefully the communication which I received from the Cigarmakers' Union. The demands are by no means unreasonable, and I think in all likelihood I will agree to pay the scale asked, but before deciding definitey, I am going to consult some of the ther manufacturers to secure their opinion on the matter," said one of the
