EAST MEETS WEST FOR TURF SUPREMACY.

[By Collyer's News Bureau.]

LATONIA, Ky., Sept. 17.—The pride of Kentucky will measure strides with the elite east in the 1921 renewal of the Latonia championship. The animal that leads the procession down to the winning post in the great mile and three-quarter graining will be America's undisputed champion 3-year-old.

At the present moment the indications are that half dozen royally bred and expertly-trained thoroughbreds will race Starter, Lady Loyal, Kentuckyans will put their faith and bet their money on Col. Edward Blake Bradley's pair of homebreds—Black Servant and Belave Youngblood. These two, lacking in sectional sentiment, will join the eastern contingent in rooting for one or the other of New England's representatives.

In meeting Black Servant on his home territory the eastern cracks will be assuming a beaten air in the Kentucky Derby he came right back and won impressively over smart competition in the Frodo Knott Handicap and then went to Canada, there to race Grey Lag to a nose and more finish in the Devonshire International.

His stable companion won the Kentucky Derby and, if today's race be decided over a fast track, is absolutely certain of running one of the best races of his career.

Opposing the Bradley entry will be a trio of endurance performers whose equal possibly never trod the Kentucky turf. That's a mighty broad assertion in the face of the fact that "Fenny, Frodo Knott and Mollie McCarthy sported colors in this neck of the woods at a time when they ruled supreme over the American thoroughbreds.

Chief of the "outlanders" is Grey Lag, the sterling son of Star Shoot, made a clean sweep of the 3-year-old classics. Nine in a row, he has won credit and lowered his colors in the Lawrence Realization, only in turn to be decisively defeated by Grey Lag.

In the 1921 renewal of the Jockey Club Gold Cup at two miles, Grey Lag unquestionably will go to the top, while the horse that beats him will carry off the winner's portion of the immense purse.

Touch the Not is numbered among the probable starters in the Latonia Championship, and he is destined to make turf history today, the horse up with Sam Hildreth's wonder horse.

Bud Fisher, famous cartoonist and one of the luckiest newcomers to the ranks of American turfmen, will have Sporting Blood as his color-bearer in the big race. It's this son of Fair Play that many believe will more than make up for the "dark horse" with more than an outside chance of being returned the winner.

Plummette, winner of the Latonia Oaks and Coaching Club Oaks, and the queen of the 3-year-olds of her sex, is also numbered among the probable starters even though she fell lame in a recent race down east. With her may "go" her stable companion, Dan Lee, while among the doubtful ones are listed the much-discussed $100,000 lemon, Playfellow, and W. R. Coe, imported son of Son-in-Law, Sportboy.

All in all it looks as though the Latonia Championship will actually be a test to be all its name implies, and a thrilling contest is in store for those who journey to the Milldale course this afternoon.
