WILL END DELAY IN MOVING WIRE

Commission Gives Building Owner Until Dec. 1 to Change Connections.

The public utilities commission declines to be further handicapped in the move to place their wires in the downtown area below the surface.

Final written notices were dispatched Friday to about 80 persons, who have to date failed to adjust their viring connections to facilitate this unjertaking, warning them that they wil be allowed until Dec. 1 to perform the change, following which they will find themselves without they will find themselves without light if they further ignore the regu-

Hydro officials explain that the delay has been chiefly occasioned by the disputes between landlords and tenants, the former claiming that the expense is "up to the latter," while the tenant holds to the contrary. As a result deadlocks have occurred in commissioners have decided. however, that sufficient time has been wasted, and as they propose that the work be hastened before the close of the year, they have well nigh lost patience and favor drastic measures as an alternative within 30 days' time.
