

and closing with God's holy day,—a year therefore of peculiar solemnity. May we enter upon it with renewed earnestness, and may God grant a double portion of His Spirit on our work, our people, and our own souls!