

Round Up of Canadian Florists While Out on a Good Time.

The annual convention of the Canadian Horticultural Association, which was held in Ottawa during August, was devoted by the delegates to seeing the sights of the surrounding country. On Saturday, the 29th, of Mr. C. Sturin, of Ottawa, where they were royally entertained. Many of Canada's leading florists were members of this party. On Sunday, the 30th, the party took a boat trip to the Rideau Canal, between two lakes in which being the past president, Mr. F. McPhee, of Ottawa. The old club secretary, Mr. A. H. Evans, of Woodstock, stands in the third from the right, while Mr. Hermon Symonds of Toronto, the treasurer, stands on the left end of the background. A full account of this convention as published in this issue.