"Vurily I say unto" you, wheresoeser this gospel shall be prearhed in the whole work, there shall ulo thes, that this woman hath done, be told for a memonad of her " --Mdathers, savi. 13.-See also John, xii. 3.

Thou hast thy record in the monarel's hall;
And on the waters of the far mid sea;
And where the mighty momtain-shadows fall,
The Alpine hamlet keeps a thought of thee:
Where'er, beneath some Oriental tree,
The Christian traveller rests-where'er the child
Looks upward from the Enghsh mother's knee,
With earnest eses in wondering reverence mild,
There art thou known-where'er the Book of Light
Bears hope and healing, there, beyond all blight,
Is borne thy memory, and atl praise above ;
Oh! sy what deed so lifted thy sweet name, Bary! to that pure silemt place of fame?

One lowly ofiering of exceeding love.
0 The price of Tue Chinstin-fice shillings curreney-one dollar is very low.It is the cheapest periodical eser issued from the Provincial Press. Very few, if any, m the I'nited States, of the same character, are as cheap. Many of our readers in this Fity, perhaps, remember seeing several pamphlets sold by the booksellers for $1 s$ and is :id. cach, which were not so well got up, and we confidently appeal to them if the matter was as interesting as this, which is handed to them for firc pence.

We expect activty ou the part of our friends. It will require punctual payments to meet the Printer'r demands; and we must all confess that he has done his work so well that he should have has pay when it is called for. We have even done more than we promised in our prospectus. The pages are larger than the Gleaner, and we have sdded a good cover, which much improves the appearance of the work. Preserve your mumbers, and at the close of the year you will have a handsome volume of $2^{2} 8$ pages. We have one more request of our readers to which we would invite their partecular attention. All who desire to see thas work entensively circulated-Will yout malir aneffort to send us in as many good subscribers as you possibly can? We want none but those who design to pay. Remember to pay your postage-it amounts to but little to you, compared with what it would be to us.
CP We shall send this number to some who have not yet become subscribers. To such we wonld say, read it carefully; and if you approve of, and desire to take it, you will please forward the amount by private conveyance or by mail, as most comvenirit, with the names of as many of your friends and neighbors as wish to become subcribers. If y ou do not cant it, you will please wrap it up carefully and superscribe it " ('inistian, St. John, N. B." if from the Provinces; but if from the U.S. 'Eastport, Mc." and send it back. You will please remember that all who retain it will be convdered subscribers.

Subscriptons received at the shop of W. L. Avery, No. 3, Prince William Street. NOTE TO THE SECOND EDITION.
The circulation of The -uhistian has become so much more extensive than we autucipated that we bave been under the necescity of orderng a reprint of the first number Our friends will remember that ths bas subjected us to an additional expense, and they will, therefore, we trust. make correspondmg efforts to increase its c irculation

No cate, study, or attention, shall be lacking on our part to make The Christian worthy of the patronage of all the lovers of truth and righteousness. We will, however, state plainly that we shall not endeavor to please any person or persons livingwe shall as carefully avord displeasing any indovidual or sect in christendom. So far is we become aequainted with the truth-that syotem which ennobles human nature thre, and fite and prepares for hiss and glory hereafter we shall spread before our ieaders In a word. we thall wite and selact our matter whth reference to that day when we shall all meet-when hyporrisy and miquity chall hide their deformed hends. and nothag will land but the trith an it is in the Iord There. Reader may we be tond werling the nmmphs of adermeng grace, and dying love.
