

Do not give up, when the next effort may be successful. Try again. Curb the hasty temper, repress the flash of the scornful eye. Be pitiful for Jesus' sake. Think how he would lay his hands upon those young heads and bless them. Think how he bore with unbelief, ingratitude, neglect. And, O Christian, dost thou not esteem it an honor to be like him?

Bear with them. Many a child has been rescued from evil in the last few attempts—many a young spirit gladdened by efforts made when all seemed lost. Pity and love the children. Do not give them up. Who will care for them if we do not? Who will teach them when your tongue is silent?

Bear with them, though the head aches, and the whole frame is weary on the day which to others is a day of rest. Go again next Sunday, praying and trusting still.

For "in due season ye shall reap, if ye faint not"
