

(1) To encourage a sentiment of unity and attachment to the Alma Mater for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne" and of providing a means whereby the authorities of the University may lay any proposals they between the students of Victoria and those of Wesley; with this end in view two scholarships have been established in the latter College, one in Arts and the other in Theology. Each is of the value of $40.

R. E. McCullagh, B.A., (Bus. Manager) A. Barner, (Religious)
 Geo. Moody, (Review-Exchange) E. J. Bawden, (Athletics) Prof. Riddell E. R. Wylie, '00, (Locals) A. W. Kenner, Editor-in-Chief Miss Isabel Disney, (Locals) Miss Ida Baker, (Literary)

VOX WESLEYANA EDITORIAL STAFF, 1899-1900.

desire before Victoria's sons in the west. It is hoped that this will be a means of strengthening the bonds of brotherhood and keep ever green the memories of the past.

2. To bring about a hearty good feeling

The officers of the organization are as follows:—

President—Dr. J. McLean, Neepawa, Man.

Sec'y-Treasurer—Rev. R. E. Spence, M.A., B.D., Lumsden, N.W.T.