RUPTURED PERSONS

Read this letter from another Toronto Citizen. To J. Y. Egan, Truss Manufacturer, Etc., 27 West Queen Street, Toronto Ontario.

DEAR SIR,—I have been ruptured about thirty-three years. My suffering during that time have been intense and can only be appreciated by those similarly conditioned. My business as carpenter and joiner (and it demands considerable muscular exertion, frequently have I been compelled to quit work, although at the time wearing Trusses made by the most prominent makers. I could not stand erect, and often had to lie down to ease my sufferings. All the Trusses I have worn have been utter failures. It has been one long round of misery and mental anxiety, loss of time and physical torture. About six months ago, thank God, I heard of your great success in the treatment of rupture cases. The appliance you adjusted gave me, I can well remember, a feeling of support never before experienced by me, and has so continued to the present day. I am now comparatively a new man. I trust this I could not stoop to tie my shoe, no matter what Truss I had on, if I got all Toronto, without my rupture coming out. To add to the difficulty I have suffered with a violent cough for years, but in the face of all this your grand appliance has held me secure all the time while doing the hardest work. Only two days ago I carried a bundle of seven thousand shingles to a two-story building and not a "budge." I never could or dare attempt such a thing before without danger of my life. To crown all, I have worn and continue to wear your appliance with great comfort, for all of which I feel deeply indebted to your skillful treatment. Very truly yours, 136 Teraulay St., Toronto. DONALD MCKINVA.

ON THE ROCK;

OR, Truth Stranger Than Fiction. THE STORY OF A STRUGGLE AFTER THE TRUTH AS IT IS FOUND IN CHRIST. By D. R. DUNGAN.

Twenty editions of this book have been sold, and the demand increases. It is the most popular book on FIRST PRINCIPLES ever published by our people. This volume discusses no new themes, nor does it present novel ideas upon the old ground of Christianity. Its novelty is found in protesting against novelities in religion, and insisting upon the usages of the primitive Church. It adopts a method for the discussion of salvation from sin which is, it is hoped, adapted to the popular education on the religious issues of the day. It was written for the benefit of, and is dedicated to, the people, with the prayer and hope that it will be widely read, and that it will do good. The author has carefully avoided technical expressions and obscure phrases, in order that it might meet their wants. He has endeavored to take these questions from the exclusive hands of the theologians, and place them in the hands of the people for their own adjudication. Will they, like the hierarchs, examine the Scriptures to see whether these things be so? Price, $1.50. Address, THE EVANGELIST PUB. CO., 11 RICHMOND ST. WEST, TORONTO.
