

Sparkles.

LONGFELLOW on Interstate Commerce: "Try not the pass," the old man said.

"MADAME," said a gentleman to a lady, "pardon me, but your hair is coming down."

NEVER ask a girl if she believes in love in a cottage unless you can show a clear deed of the cottage. It will be well to have the deed with you to show as a curiosity.

A LOVELY THING IN PERFUMES.—"Lotus of the Nile."

MISTRESS (to servant): Did you tell those ladies at the door that I was not at home? Servant: Yes, mum. Mistress: What did they say? Servant: How fortinit.

"YOU may speak," said a fond mother, "about people having strength of mind, but when it comes to strength of don't mind, my son William surpasses everybody I ever knew."

A CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Opium, morphine, chloral, tobacco and kindred habits. The medicine may be given in tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it, if so desired. Send 6c in stamps for book and testimonials from those who have been cured. Address M. V. Luton, 47 Wellington Street East, Toronto, Ont.

SAID A White House caller to President Cleveland, as he shook hands the other day: "You must come up to Boston. We won't take 'no' for an answer. Come and bring Mrs. K. with you."

"CAN there be anything be brought into this house," asked a disgusted member of the Legislature, "that will not be repealed sooner or later?" One of the opposition suggested "a peeled orange."

FOR DEEP-SEATED COLDS and Coughs, Allen's Lung Balsam cures when all other remedies fail.

BAD luck is simply a man with his hands in his pockets and pipe in his mouth, looking on to see how it is coming out. Good luck is a man of pluck with his sleeves rolled up, and working to make it come out right.

"TO what do you attribute the curative properties of your spring?" asked a visitor at a health resort. "Well," answered the proprietor thoughtfully, "I guess the advertising I've done has had something to do with it."

JAMES PYLE'S PEARLINE.—This preparation, advertised elsewhere, is really an excellent article for saving labour in washing. It takes the place of soap, sal-soda and other chemical preparations.

SHE (gazing upward). How bright the stars are to-night, Mr. Sampson! He (promptly): They are not brighter, Miss Clara, than, than— She (softly): Than what, Mr. Sampson? He: than they were last night.

"If a man wants to own the earth, what does women want?" inquired Mr. Grapp of his better half, after a little family matinee, a few days ago. "Well, my dear," responded that lady, in a gentle tone, "to own the man, I suppose."

BE PREPARED.—Many of the worst attacks of cholera morbus, cramps, dysentery and colic come suddenly in the night, and the most speedy and prompt means must be used to combat their dire effects. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the remedy. Keep it at hand for emergencies. It never fails to cure or relieve.

HOTEL CLERK (to guest): Your bill is one dollar and a half, sir. And how did you find trade in town, sir? Guest: Trade? I'm no drummer. I'm a gentleman, and am travelling for pleasure. Hotel Clerk (contritely): I beg your pardon, sir. Two dollars, please.

"BROMLEY, you never heard such an eloquent sermon before, I am sure. There was no lagging of interest. Such brilliant passages!" "Yes, Darringer, I admit that. Still I slept during one of the passages. "You did, eh? Why, Bromley, what passage was it?" "The passage of the collection plate."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

DR. A. L. TURNER, Head Physician, Bloomingburg Sanitarium, Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed it in several hundred cases of epilepsy, and always with good results. As an adjunct to the recuperative powers of the nervous system I know of nothing to equal it."

SAM JOHNSON, an Austin coloured man, has a mule that balks. After Sam had belaboured the mule for an hour the animal trotted off all right. "Dar," said Sam, confidentially to the mule, "dar, ye see, ef yer would only do what's right, we mout lib tergedder jes like two budders."

THE MEMORY AND HOW TO IMPROVE IT.

7/13 SEND TO PROFESSOR WOOD, F.L.S., (Lecturer, Trinity College, Dublin).

For his prospectus of his system of training the memory. Recommended by clergymen, doctors and lawyers in all parts of Great Britain, United States and Canada for the wonderful results attained. Lectures and sermons can be fixed in the mind by once reading over. Foreign languages learned at the rate of from eighty to 120 words per hour. Dates and figures (the most difficult of all subjects to remember) cannot be forgotten after being once read.

Rev. W. B. Pope, D.D. (author of "Pope's Theology," etc.), says: "I have great pleasure in testifying to the vast benefit to be derived from the study of your system of Memory. Although it appears incredible that such knowledge can be acquired so quickly and so easily, the success of our students here in our college would satisfy the most sceptical. Wishing you success in your Educational Revolution."

Rev. J. Odery, 77 Herkimer Street, Hamilton, Ont., says: "Your teachings are sound, sensible and practicable."

PROF. F. H. WOOD, F.L.S. Box 551, Post Office, Toronto.
