TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Will C. M., Oakland, Ont., send his or her name? Tid-bit received, but to whom should Tuttit be sent?

J. Nelson Browne, Belleville, -We have no such binders as those you enquire about, but we are thinking of getting them.

GEO. HERBERT. —Thanks for "A Contrast." It contains excellent sentiment, but it is hardly up to the mark for publication.

CHARLES WHITMER.—All stories received fird their way to publication within a week or so. The others are soldom returned by the committee.

JAMES F. FASTER, Claremont, Ont .- Poem received: it is very good, but obituary poetry is of so little general interest that we must decline it.

SUBSCRIBER, Port Perry.—Almost any large dry goods store keeps the article you ask about in stock. Try Messrs. W. A. Murray, & Co., Henry Davis, 232 Yonge St, The latter is sure to have it.

A. P. S., Petrolia. - You can compete as often as you like in connection with the prize story offer. Each time the conditions must be complied with. The extra paper may be sent to whoever you wish.

J. L. HICKMAN.—Competitors sending stories should keep copies of them, as it is a difficult matter to return them from this office after they have passed through so many hands, a d have often been some time on consideration. We fear yours cannot now be found.

M. A. HABGOOD, Niagara Falls.-Should like to oblige you and the little boy, but if we made a practice of breaking our rules there would be no end of giving prizes Though the answers may have been quite correct, if they were sent in too late they would be debarred from gutting a prize.

T. Collins. - Your story may have been quite good enough for publication and may not have been rejected on that account. A good many that come are really good an we would be glad to see them published, but only one can be selected each week, and the most suitable of several good ones is taken and well paid for. This is all we can do.

A. S., Montreal.-It is quite true that your answers are correct, but you will see by looking at he conditions of No. 12 that it was not periods for every correct answer to get a first-class prize. The prizes were tairly awarded to such answers. In the present competition every correct answer will receive a prize, but of course every one cannot get the first prize.

R J. Fesserton, Ont.—The stories are all submitted to the hands of the committee to be judged on their merits, and one award is made each week, but not always necessarily out of those sent during that week. No enquiries are made of the committee. Every competitor has fair play. The publication of the story is the only announcement of its acceptance. All are treated exactly alike.

It is now pretty well understood to be a dangerous practice to attempt to palm off worthless imitations of the "Myrtle Navy" worthless imitations of the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco for the genuine article. In former years that practice was the cause of much annoyance, and Messrs. Tuckett & Son were compelled to resort to the law courts to put a stop to it. Though they have not met with any cases of the kind lately, it is always a safe precaution for the purchaser to see that the t-ade mark T. & B. in bronze letters is atamped upon each plug, no plug ever leaves the factory without it, and to appropriate the trade mark is a punishable

Let your daughter, with a little advice, cut up a few yards of calico, and make aprons, drosses and bedquilts, even if there be a little waste and poor ats. She will be likely to see her mistakes and profit by them. Let her make some cake and bread, and broil some meat, and boil some corn, no matter if she does have to throw some of it into the swill-pail. It is better to make a few mis-takes while young, in acquiring an education, than to grow up without experience.
