BIVALVULAR.

TT was a maxim of Euripides either to keep silence or to speak something better than silence. Whether this maxim is worthy of imitation or not must be decided by a discriminating public. There is, however, one important truth which demands a word, and that is, there is no one article of food more waiver-solly polatable than the opster, and yet, even in the present day, very few really know what a good cyster is, or where the best can be obtained. The best judges affirm that in no other place in the city can as good an article be found, as at

THE AMERICAN OYSTER COMPANY'S DEPOT.

No. 17, PLACE D'ARMES.

In view of this indisputable fact J. B. BUSS, (who has been connected with the business for the last 15 years) is determined that everybody shall understand where the luxury may be found. To every lover of the BIVALVE he would say

BUY NONE BUT

J. B. BUSS' OYSTERS.

They are put up in the neatest possible manner, and delivered to any part of the city, and furnished either in cans, kegs, bulk, or in the shell.

By leaving your orders at 17. Place D'Armes you will be sure to get the best Oysters in the city.

Assignee's Sale.

COMMENCING ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 10,

The Subscriber will Sell the ENTIRE STOCK-IN-TRADE

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS OF THE LATE FIRM OF

Messrs. DUFRESNE, GREY & Co. INSOLVENTS,

And will continue each day and evening until the whole is disposed of.

It is almost unnecessary to say anything in favour of this Stock. The house has been celebrated for their choice assortment of the Newest and Most Fashionable Goods, imported direct by one of the Firm, thus saving the large profit of the Wholesale Merchant. Take, then, into consideration the fact of the Stock being purchased from the Official Assignee at one-half the original cost, and you will easily see that no house in the trade can offer such inducements.

The Stock will be sold at the OLD STAND, 454, NOTRE DAME STREET.
