(SPECIAL PROM OTTAWA.)

OTTAWA, April 16.

Bir John A. Macdonald is excessively pesfered with all kinds of cranks calling and professing to make wonderful revelations regarding the mysterious dynamiters. The Premier is at length waking up to the fact that a class of imposters exist who are stir-Captain-General Castillo has given me thanks ring up the dynamite question in order that they may get place and polf. In every large oity there are a number of reckless cranks and crocks to be found, who for a few dollars are ready to undertake any job, provided it does not involve immediate danger to themselves. Not only the British, but the Canadian Government, are now employing, at good pay, a large number of detectives, informers, spies, and such people, to keep a lookout for dynsmiters. This hungry horde, finding themselves living in clover, must do comething for the large sums they are receiving. They have get a goose that is laying a golden egg, and they don't propose to kill that accommodating goose by telling the truth, and the truth is that there is no danger existing from dynamite. Therefore they go to work and "put up jobs" by inducing hot headed cranks to go around tanking threats, or blow up an old building, or leave suspicious parcels in conspicuous places. These worthies hang around and shadow every Irishman whom they sugpect of disloyalty, work into his confidence, and endeavor to get him to dompromise him. self. For instance, a party by the name of Coso, who is here now, went to Montreal and endeavoted to enlist one of the detectives in a scheme to blow up a building. They proposed to him a few hot heads for the purpose, then arrest and betray their dupes and secure the reward offered. To show how suspects are shadowed, your correspondent was informed that a few months ago a meeting of machinists was held in Montreal. A dynamite detective, hearing of it, hid him-self in a loft over the room, but being s heavy man, he stepped on the hatch,
