Mercantile Summary.

A CENSUS just taken of the town to settle the claims of the tavern keepers for more licenses, shows that Windsor has a population of 6,743.

THE western channel of the Toronto harbour is to be widened and deepened. It is the intention of the Commissioners to expend the Government appropriation of $20,000 in dredging the harbour to a depth of at least fourteen feet, so that all vessels which can pass through the canals may be admitted.

ON July 1 the new act came into force, by which hereafter ten years undisturbed possession of real estate will give the holder a statutory title thereto, instead of twenty years, as heretofore.

A PORK packing establishment is being built in Windsor, Ont. It is to be in working order about September next.

A Commissioners' Court, to take evidence in suits vs. the Clinton Insurance Company, sat in New Brunswick a week ago.

THE Sydney miners now on strike offer to go to work for two cents advance, but their offer is refused by the manager. Twenty of those engaged in the riots were tried and eighteen acquitted.

It is proposed to take the steamer Talmouth, which connects with the Grand Trunk Railway at Portland for Halifax, off that route and run her to Yarmouth, so as to make connection with the Western Counties Railway.

It is said, on the authority of Mr. Daly, President of the Ontario Dairymen's Association, that the dairy products exhibited by Canada at the Philadelphia Exposition, have surpassed in quality those of the United States, and that Canadian exhibitors have taken the principal prizes in the first competition.
