Dear Sir, —Your "Dr. More's Indian Root Pills' are the best regulator for the system that humanity can up. Life is as the time-piece: frail and delicate are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheelin the works, and what is thereault?—at first, only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; st the obstruction growe, the irregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much ca ein thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in buman life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning have been cured with little trov ble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pille, and so preserve vegor and vitality.

HOW IS THIS?

Something unique even in these days of mammoth premium offers, is the latest effort of Stafford's Magazine, a New York monthly of home and general reading.

The proposition is to send the magazine one year for one dollar, the regular subscription price, and in addition to send each subscriber fifty-two complete novels during the twelve months; one each week.

Think of it. You receive a new and complete novel, by mail, post paid, every week for fifty-two weeks, and in addition you get the magazine once a month for twelve months, all for one dollar. It is an offer which the publishers can only afford to make in the confident expectation of getting a hundred thousand new subscribers. Among the authors in the coming series are Wilkie Collins, Walter Besant, Mrs. Oliphant, Mary Cecil Hay, Florence Marryat, Anthony Trollope, A Conan Doyle Miss Braddon. Captain Marryat, Miss Thackery and Jules Verne. If you wish to take advantage of this Junusual opportunity send one dollar for Stafford's Magazine, one year. Your first copy of the magazine, and your first number of the fifty two novels (one each week) which you are to receive during the year will be sent you by return mail. Remit by P. O.
