

A Canadian Foreign Service Academy - THE WHAT!

4. Being a FOCAL POINT for the acquisition of skills and knowledge related to the specific field of INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS it will not compete with, or duplicate existing services offered either by the Government or the private sector. It will carefully select and contract suitable courses and programs available from CCMD, the Defence College, Training Canada, Universities or private training centres. There will most likely be opportunities for joint ventures with other institutions.

5. Its PEDAGOGICAL APPROACH will be that of an institution of continuous adult learning. It will be practical not academic in nature.

The relevance of its subject matter will be tested against the working environment of its clientèle. Its methodologies and activities will be fully integrated with the workplace - both utilising it and drawing from it.
