

Canada Fund for Africa

Note: This chart reflects the allocation of $421 million of the $500 million Canada Fund for Africa for initiatives announced at the Kananaskis G8 Summit in June 2002.

The following sections give an overview of the status of the specific national commitments Canada made at the Kananaskis Summit in June 2002 and provide examples of other actions taken to respond to the G8 Africa Action Plan as a whole.

Sustainable growth, trade, and investment

NEPAD seeks to create the conditions necessary to place African countries, individually and collectively, on a path to sustainable growth and development and to enable Africa to participate more actively in the world economy.

■ Canada has committed more than $20 million in trade-related technical assistance to help Africa compete globally.

Canada has committed an additional $20 million in trade-related capacity building to assist African partners in taking advantage of increased market access and in representing their interests more effectively in the ongoing Doha Round of World Trade Organization negotiations. This commitment supplements existing Canadian trade-related capacity building for Africa, and includes:
