[Translation]

Mr. Evans: Mr. Speaker, I ask that the remaining questions be allowed to stand.

Mr. Speaker: The questions enumerated by the Parliamentary Secretary have been answered. Shall the remaining questions stand?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

[English]

Mr. McKinnon: Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the Parliamentary secretary to pay attention to Question No. 368 which is on the Order Paper in my name. It was first put down some three years ago. It asks the simple question:

What was the increase in real terms in the Department of National Defence's expenditures, including the statutory costs and expressed in percentages, for each fiscal year 1970-71 to 1979-80?

It is a very simple question. In speeches by a variety of Ministers of National Defence, they are forever telling us what they are getting. I would like them to put it in writing on the Order Paper. If there is anything about the way the question is phrased and it could be changed to make it simpler so that their minds could comprehend what I am after, I would be pleased to do that.
