

senator making the interrogation and by the senator answering the same. Observations upon any such answer shall not be allowed.

Question of privilege

33. When a matter or question directly concerning the privileges of the Senate, of any committee thereof, or of any senator, has arisen, a motion calling upon the Senate to take action thereon may be moved without notice and, until decided, shall, unless the debate be adjourned, suspend the consideration of other motions and of the Orders of the Day.

Complaint against news media

34. A senator complaining to the Senate of a statement in a newspaper, magazine, periodical, on radio or television or any form of public news media, as a breach of privilege, shall specify the matter complained of, the source thereof and the nature of the breach of privilege.

Quoting Commons speech

34A. The content of a speech made in the House of Commons in the current session may be summarized, but it is out of order to quote from such a speech unless it be a speech of a Minister of the Crown in relation to government policy. A senator may always quote from a speech made in a previous session.

Question read

35. Except when another senator is speaking, a senator may require the question under discussion to be read at any time during the debate.

Motions during debate

36. (1) When a question is under debate, a motion shall not be received unless it is a motion to amend the question, to refer the question to a committee, to adjourn the debate, to postpone the debate to a certain day, for the previous question, or for the adjournment of the Senate.

Adjournment of debate

(2) A motion to adjourn a debate shall be deemed to be a motion to postpone that debate to the day speci-
