

MCGILL UNIVERSITY
PRINCIPAL AND VICE-CHANCELLOR
L. W. DOUGLAS

May 27, 1938

My dear Dr. Reid,

Thank you so very much for your kind letter.

I appreciate your references to my baccalaureate address, but I do indeed realize that I could have said a great deal more than I did and that I probably left out many things. That is the worst of extemporaneous addresses - so much always remains that there was not time to include.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. W. D. Reid,
619 Victoria Avenue,
Westmount.