

2000 ROOMS in the Canadian Pacific Rockies

Three Giant Mountain Ranges
Making Fifty Swisslands in One
Between Calgary & Vancouver, B.C.

Distinctive hotels—each as picturesque as the scenery into which it fits—each with its special feature of glaciers, lakes, Alpine climbing, fishing, pony riding, swimming or golf. Luxurious mountain-guarded Banff Springs Hotel—restful Chateau Lake Louise, among the Lakes in the Clouds. Mount Stephen House at Field, under the shadow of Cathedral Mountain—the gem-like Emerald Lake Chalet—

Glacier House, glacier rich—Hotel Sicamous, on the the Shores of Shuswap Lake—spacious, gracious Hotel Vancouver, at the Gateway to the Pacific—the Empress at Victoria, B. C., on Vancouver Island, with its atmosphere of old England—these hotels invite you this summer.

F. L. HUTCHINSON
Manager in Chief of
Canadian Pacific Hotel System
MONTREAL