

9. Meetings.

The society shall hold an annual meeting in such city of the Dominion as it may determine from time to time. It may at any annual meeting appoint other meetings to be held in the course of the year. The time of holding the annual meeting shall be on a day or days to be determined at the next previous meeting, or, failing this, by the council. The offices of the society shall be in the city of Ottawa, and its meetings shall be held in that city unless otherwise determined.

10. Papers.

The title of any paper, memoir or other production, by a member, intended to be read at a meeting of the society, shall be submitted, together with an abstract of its contents, to the council, through the secretary, previous to the meeting at which it is to be read. On its approval, each such communication shall be assigned to the section to which it belongs, and having been therein read and discussed, shall be submitted to a committee of the section, and on report of said committee may be recommended to the council for publication, either entire or in abstract, in the Transactions of the society. Communications by persons not members of the society may be submitted by members on the same conditions as their own productions.

11. Associated Societies.

Every scientific or literary society in the Dominion which may be selected by vote of the society shall be invited by circular of the honorary secretary to elect annually one of its members as a delegate to the meetings of the society, such delegate to have, during his term of office, the privilege of taking part in all general or sectional meetings for reading and discussion of papers, and to be empowered to communicate a short statement of original work done and papers published during the year by his society, and to report on any matters in which the Royal Society may usefully aid in publication or otherwise.

12. Circulation of Transactions.

Copies of the Transactions of the society shall be sent to the following:

All members who have paid their subscriptions.

All associated societies.

Such foreign societies as may be selected by the council.

The lieutenant-governors of the provinces of the Dominion and Newfoundland.

The members of the Privy Council of Canada.
