nd Kerseys,

To-day's Ontario Gazette will contain the proclamation of His Hon. Lieut.-Governor Gibson, summoning the members to attend the session of the twelfth parliament of the legislative assembly of the Province of Ontario on Tuesday, Jan. 24, inst., at 3 o'clock of the afternoon of the date will not come as a surprise to the readers of The World, as it is but one week earlier than the date referred to a few days ago as that lookments buildings. The date, however, is in the nature of a bombshell to the members of the legal profession, who were relying upon a prediction given as semi-official in another newspaper, which named March 19 as the probable date for the opening.

Not a Heavy Session. James Whitney stated to The World last night that altho the session was called at the earliest date that the progress with the completion of the west wing rendered convenient, it was not because of any expectation that the business of the
