The housing commission has finally decided to act, and on Saturday the members sent the following letter to Mayor Church: "When in January, 1919, you brought the matter of housing to the attention of the members of the pro-posed commission. it was specifically set out that the desire of the city was to have the business of the housing commission conducted on strictly business lines, in order that the funds might be administered to the best ad-vantage, and that the buyers of the houses would receive the best possible value for the moneys expended. At that time it was decided that a com-mission numbering five would get that time it was decided that a com-mission numbering five would get the best results, and to add to that number would result in an unwieldy administration of housing matters. It was pointed out by the members of the proposed commission that they would act only if they were given such powers by the city and provin-such powers by the city and provinwas ponced commission and workable would act only if they were given such powers by the city and provincial governments as would enable them to conduct the housing affairs on strictly business lines. Therefore, we drew up a draft bill, submitting it to the city commissioners, who, in turn, presented it to the Ontario government. It was finally decided that a carefully revised draft bill be sent to the city council of Toronto for ratification, thus giving the proposed ratification, thus giving the proposed housing commission such authority as they felt was necessary for them to function to the best interests of re-turned men and civilians desiring houses.

Gray, who wrote the book for Arthur Pearson's "Step Lively Girls" has a number of successful plays to his credit, and some of the biggest headliners in vaudeville and musical comedy rely on Mr. Gray for their material. The music is by Henry Stothart, who has written many melo-dies that have been heard on Broad-way during the past five years. This production, featuring Rich (Shorty) McAllister, Harry T. today. John Barrymore, the popular Para-mount star, has scored a decisive hit in his new photoplay. "The Test of Honor," which is showing at the Allen all this week. Mr. Barrymore has a strong dramatic role in this picture, which stands out boldly by contrast with his comedy work on the screen in the past. That he is an unusually gifted player is amply evidenced, and that his portrayal of the convict in this production will vastly enhance his popularity seems to be assured. A very capable cast of players has been provided for this production. The list is headed by Constance Binney, of "Sporting Life," fame, and others include Marcia Manon, Robert Schable, J. W. Johnson. Bigelow Cooper, Ned Hay. Alma Aiken and Fred Miller "Allporte," the Canadian soprano, will reappear in a new repertoire of songs, accompanied by the Allen concert or-chestra. under the direction of Luigi Romanelli. Would Not Permit of Such Large Expenditure.

"I am opposed to the request for $2000 for each fighting man, $1500 for each man who has proceeded overseas, and $1000 for each man discharged in Canada, for very practical business reasons," said W. E. Turley, provin-cial secretary, G.W.V.A., Saturday, "A

"The practical business reasons mainst acceding to the demand for against acceding to the dem cash compensation for services render-ed are, in brief, as fo olws: It would cost the country $635,000,000 to cost the country $65,000,000 to meet the claims of the 417,000 volunteers, and a total of $835,000,000 to pay off the 595,441 men who have served in the Canadian forces in this war. Well over 300,000 of them would be entitled to the $2000 gratuity. Canada cannot shoulder such a burden for the follow-

This, he said, would entail an annual expense to Can-ada of $110,000,000 as long as the pres-ent generation of Canadians Hve. "The cost of pensions in 1919 will amount to $30,000,000, and eventually to $60,000,000. The work in connection with the new department of soldiers' civil re-establishment will come to $25,000,000. These, in addition to wan gratuities, pay and allowance, upkeep of military hospitals, will create total of $185,000,000, which will have to be met this year as a result of war activities, in addition to $125,000,000? which will be required to run the affairs of the country,

"The income to meet this large amount totals $195,000,000, which is made up of $140,000,000 from customs receipts, $25,000,000 from excise, and $30,000,000 from income and business profits taxation. The problem for the acting premier, Sir Thomas White, during the present session of parlia-ment will be to find the extra $115.

"If this agitation were successful it would be impossible for Canada to meet her obligations to the widows, orphans and disabled men who have served. The present pension scale is inadequate. We cannot get an increase for those men in need if we demand enormous cash compensation for serv-ices rendered."

Many wage-earners are asking themselves this question.

They do not want to put a quarter in the bank at a time, and before they know it, it is gone for trifles.

The Government has provided a simple plan to enable you to save that quarter in such a way that it will earn you more money.

Twenty-five cents buys a Thrift Stamp. Sixteen Thrift Stamps become a War Savings Stamp, for which the Government will pay you $5.00 in 1924.

If you lend the Government your savings in this way, you can make your money earn over 41/2% compound interest as often as you save $4.00 odd. That is more than Savings Banks pay you.

This is not only easy and profitable investment, but patrictic investment, because the Government needs money for the heavy financing of the reconstruction period.
