

Watson Beats Sonoma Girl In 2:10 Trot at Poughkeepsie

Zaza Blacklock and Leland Onward
Also Winners on Tuesday—
Monday's Results.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y., Aug. 13.—Sonoma Girl, the most famous racehorse of the year, met her first defeat in the Grand Circuit in the race at the driving track Tuesday afternoon, when she was beaten by Watson in the Oakland Baron Stake, 2:10 class trotting, for a purse of $4000. Breaks in the first and third heats cost Sonoma Girl the race. She was steady in the second heat and won that heat with comparative ease in 2:08, the fastest heat of the race.

Before the race Sonoma Girl was an almost prohibitive favorite, selling for $50 to $75 for the field, while in many of the pools she was barred in the betting. She appeared sound when starting for the first heat, and after delaying the start for some time, finally went to a break soon after the word was given. She was such a long distance behind the field when she caught that it was impossible for her to do anything more than save her distance that heat.

In the second heat Sonoma Girl was steady, and when Springer set sail with her down the back stretch she overtook the leaders rapidly. Watson gave her quite a race down the homestretch, but did not have the speed to win. In the third heat Sonoma Girl had the pole, having won the previous heat, and went to a break at the turn, just as Watson went in on the pole. Sonoma Girl ran for nearly a quarter of a mile and was hopelessly behind when she struck a trot after the race Springer went to the stand and said that Leland, the driver of Watson, had cut him off on the turn, causing him to break. Watson, however, did not see it that way, and it was evident to them that Leland had plenty of room to cut in and take the pole, he being far enough ahead of the mare not to interfere with her. Springer made no formal protest.

It was another bad day for favorites, only one first choice winning, and that being Zaza Blacklock in the straight heats. Watson, however, was the favorite in the 2:10 pace, but Leland Onward, driven by "Tommy" Murphy, won in straight heats. Summary:

Perfect Manhood

Health of body, strength of mind, steadiness of nerves are the best and most precious gifts man can lay upon the altar of his conjugal love. Restorine operates on the nerves which control the sexual system, and infuse into it, power and vigor. No such thing as failure in life, is possible in perfect manhood; it is the lack of vital force, and the depletion of sexual energies that makes failures of men. Restorine awakens a man to a sense of restored vitality and power. Why be weak when you can so easily become strong? Proofs are the test. Sworn testimonials sent to any one on receipt of name. Five Days' Trial Treatment sent absolutely free. Write To-Day. (11)
