Felt Footwear Sale Emphasizes SLIPPERS Monday

WHEN a man comes home of a winter night, takes off his cold heavy boots and turns for his slippers what does he find? That is the question for you to answer.

And when you yourself are busy sewing, or dressing for the afternoon, or active in the negligee in the morning, would you not be a great deal happier if your feet were warm and softly clad in thick, non-conducting felt, over which draughts are powerless and the coldest floors exert no influence?

Think of the long winter evenings at home with the family around the fireside, or at their lessons—each tired foot slipped in Felt! There, you have the idea of this sale. We offer you the Felt Slippers at prices which make it an advantage to buy now.
