

DR. VOGT'S RESEAR... OF GREATEST CREDIT

Preserved Flower of Art Un-harmed Thru Vicissitudes of War Days.

COULD NOT PARTICULARIZE FOR YOUNG FARMERS

Work of Mendelssohn Choir in Last Concert Given Just Reward in Applause.

Last night's concert in Massey Hall concluded the Mendelssohn Choir season for 1915, and the enthusiasm with which "The Children's Crusade" was greeted proved that interest had grown each night, and also that the great works produced by Dr. Vogt are all the more welcome on repetition. It is impossible to become sufficiently familiar, for example, with "The Mystic Trumpeter" in one performance to do it justice, or to understand all its intentions in orchestration and chorus work.

FOR YOUNG FARMERS

"If stock-breeding was not too good for Queen Victoria, the finest lady in Great Britain, and one of the greatest women that country has produced in a great many years, is there anyone in this country who is too good for it?" asked A. J. Craig, deputy minister of agriculture in Alberta, addressing the annual banquet of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada, attended by 167 people in the Hotel Carls-Rite last night.

Nearly 1100 Toronto men have come forward for enlistment during the first half of this week, the figures showing that 1076 have offered and 672 been accepted. Yesterday was not so good for recruiting as the earlier part of the week, a total of 210 men volunteering, of whom 137 were accepted. At the armories depot 400 offered and 79 were attested. At the 109th Regiment armory 110 offered and 68 were attested.

169th Battalion, C.E.F., Lt.-Col. J. G. Wright, O.C. ARMOURIES: 73 PEARL ST. Just Around the Corner From York

It is impossible to particularize in the work of the chorus, so even, so capable, so rich and full, so perfect in tone, in time, in accent, in light and shade. Dr. Vogt deserves the greatest credit for preserving this exquisite flower of art unscathed thru all the vicissitudes of these days of war.

PERSIA NEVER DECLARED WAR

In answer to an enquiry of a subscriber as to the date when Persia declared war on the Central Powers, it is stated that Persia has never declared war on anybody. WAR SUMMARY: Today's Events Reviewed

Guessing about the duration of the war has been started again. About the only certainty is that, with the calling out of all her available recruiting will be in a numerical preponderance over the central powers and their grave disaster, such as the disarming of one or two million men with any period of time, that numerical preponderance will rapidly increase. The everything should be smooth sailing for the allies, barring the minor mishaps which are inevitable in war.
