"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"Fruit-a-tives" Brought the Joy of Health After Two Years' Suffering.

MADAM LAPLANTE.

35 St. Rose st., Montreal, April 4.
"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from pain in the back and kidney disease.

"I was treated by a physician for a year and a half, and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes I was greatly improved, and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no headaches, no palpitation, no pain or kidney trouble, and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-a-tives' that gave me back my health."

CORNWALL HAPPY OVER
ARRIVAL OF COAL

Three Carloads Relieves the Situation Till Another Cold Spell at Least.

Special to The Toronto World.
Cornwall, Feb. 15.—A partial relief to the coal situation in Cornwall came today with the arrival of two cars for one dealer and one for another. The news spread like wildfire through the town, and occasioned much joy, as it was evidence that freight is on the move. One shipment came in by Grand Trunk and the other by New York Central, which shows that these roads have reached a working basis.

In the police court yesterday afternoon the case of the Toronto Railway Company versus the city, in regard to overcrowding, was resumed. M. K. Cowan, K.C., appearing for the defendants, argued that the Public Health Act, which the charge was laid, was never intended to apply to a traveling public vehicle, but was aimed at the prevention of nuisance in the railway company's locality. The medical health department, he declared, had no jurisdiction whatever over the street car system. This power was vested in the City of Toronto Board. Concluding, he averred that if the word "premises," as contained in the act, was inserted for the purpose of covering private dwellings and public conveyances, then there was nothing to prevent the health department from summoning the railway and steamship companies for breaches of the act.

I. S. Fairly, for the city, explained that the medical health department gained its powers in this respect from the Public Health Act, which had the approval of the privy council. Mr. Fairly claimed that the health department had shown that the cars were overcrowded, and were thus a detriment to public health. The statement of Mr. Cowan that Dr. Hastings had approved the type of cars as used by the railway company, Mr. Fairly denied, claiming that Dr. Hastings, instead, had condemned them all.

Magistrate Kingsford ordered the case to be laid over for a week.

Ex-Policeman J. H. Dodds Dies
Was Popular Member of Force

The death of ex-Policeman John H. Dodds occurred at his residence, 71 First avenue, last night, after a lingering illness. He was forty-nine years of age, and was superannuated about a year ago because of ill-health. He was born in the town of Halton, County of Northumberland, and came to Toronto 27 years ago. He received recognition for his work on the force, and was later a Police Commissioner, and had figured in several important arrests in this city.

He is survived by his widow and three children, the late Mrs. Dr. J. Dodds of Pembroke, James J. Dodds of Ottawa, M. J. Dodds, police constable at the parliament buildings, and a sister, Margaret, who still resides at the old homestead in Halton Township. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Order of Foresters, who will assist in the funeral, which will be held on Monday morning from St. Ann's Church to Mount Hope Cemetery.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

The Seal has been set once and for all on the purity of SUNLIGHT SOAP.

SUNLIGHT SOAP is known by name throughout all the world, but not by name alone. Sunlight Soap is known by purity just as it is known by name. An established and guaranteed purity is ever associated with Sunlight Soap. The name and the guarantee are inseparable. They must ever remain so, because PURITY is the great soap essential. Cleansing means purification—without pure soap you cannot have perfect cleanliness—this stands to reason.

The $5,000 Guarantee of Purity given with every bar of Sunlight Soap is something more than an advertisement. It is a dominant force throughout the whole of the Sunlight Soap manufacture. To say that this guarantee is the dominant chord in the perfect harmony of the Sunlight Works would better express its influence.

The buyer who buys the choice Sunlight Soap materials—the soap boiler—the expert chemist—the girls who wrap and pack Sunlight Soap—all are mindful of the guarantee. The $5,000 Guarantee of Purity is a source of gratification to all the Sunlight workers.

AFTERNOON DANCING A POPULAR PASTIME

Hotel St. Charles Provides Dainty
Afternoon Tea and Dancing

That after-theatre dancing has proved to be a popular feature in Toronto is evidenced by the host of patrons who attend the matinee tea dances at the Hotel St. Charles every Saturday from 4.30 to 6 p.m. A dainty afternoon tea is served, while special music is provided by the Hotel St. Charles orchestra under the leadership of Nelson Hatch. Prompt service, food of the highest quality, tastefully prepared, and a dance floor that is unequalled in the city are the factors that have made the St. Charles so popular. As a la carte dinner is served from 6 to 8.30 p.m., while an after-theatre supper with cabaret features, served from 10.30, has been particularly well patronized. Table reservations may be made by calling A. 690.

ST. THOMAS' SOLDIER HONORED.

Special to The Toronto World.
St. Thomas, Ont., Feb. 15.—Capt. A. E. Sutton, a former St. Thomas boy, has been awarded the military cross for gallantry at Beaumont-Hamel, while with the R.A.M.C. The young soldier is a son of Wesley Sutton, and received his early education in the St. Thomas public schools and a collegiate institute, later graduating from Toronto University in 1909.

The judge held that she was a guest of the hotel and was entitled to all the privileges of the hotel and the supervision of all her belongings. He ruled that the defendants could not claim protection of the Hotelkeepers Act with regard to the limitation of liability, because they had not posted the warning announcements which the law called upon them to provide.

Had Nervous Indigestion and Lost 40 Pounds

Doctors Did Not Seem to Understand the Case, But Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Effected Cure.

Brockville, Ont., Feb. 16.—When the nerves become exhausted the digestive system soon weakens and fails to properly take care of the food. The flow of gastric juices is stopped and the undigested food ferments, causing all sorts of trouble.

The natural result is a weak and watery condition of the blood, which still further exhausts the nervous system and so the patient goes from bad to worse until he gets something that will go directly to increase the nerve force in the body.

The writer of this letter found that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food exactly suited her case and was successful in restoring vigor and strength to the system. If you will put this great food cure to the test you will soon know why so many people are enthusiastically recommending it to their friends.

Mrs. J. F. Clow, 20 King street west, Brockville, Ont., writes: "I had nervous indigestion so that I could not eat anything, and failed from 170 pounds to 130 pounds. I consulted doctors, but they did not seem to understand my case. I saw Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advertised, and as it seemed to fit my case, I decided to try it. Even from the first the Nerve Food seemed to agree with my stomach, and I was soon able to eat and digest my food. I continued the treatment until I fully recovered; and now I would recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from nervous indigestion."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

HOLD HOTEL LIABLE FOR GUEST'S PROPERTY

King Edward Must Pay for Clothes
Stolen From Lavatory.

According to a ruling of Judge Winchester the King Edward Hotel is liable for the belongings of its guests. In the action of Marguerite C. Holmes, who sued the hotel for $235.50, claimed as the value of a fur coat and a pair of gloves lost or stolen from the hotel premises, he awarded her $151.50. On November 27 last she entered the hotel and had tea in the Alexandra room. Afterwards she hung her coat in the lavatory and placed her gloves on the wash basin, but when she returned they were gone.

The defence of the defendants was that a room with a competent attendant at the entrance was provided for guests, and that the hotel was not liable for the loss of the coat and gloves. The judge held that the hotel was negligent in not taking advantage of the facility. They also claimed that if held liable it should only be to the extent of $40, the limit provided by the Hotelkeepers Act. They stated that the plaintiff was not a guest of the hotel, but only a casual patron of the tea room.

The judge held that she was a guest of the hotel and was entitled to all the privileges of the hotel and the supervision of all her belongings. He ruled that the defendants could not claim protection of the Hotelkeepers Act with regard to the limitation of liability, because they had not posted the warning announcements which the law called upon them to provide.

SOLDIERS SEE FILMS AND VOTE THEM GOOD

Returned Men From Hospitals Say Counsellor Pictures Are the Best Ever.

It takes the men in khaki to appreciate war pictures. The returned men can detect a fake almost before it is thrown on the screen, and it is the war veteran, too, who knows best the value of every foot of film. The pictures of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, which are drawing such tremendous audiences at the Regent Theatre this week, and which are being shown in the theatres of the world, were yesterday morning by a most enthusiastic and appreciative audience composed of patients from the Spadina, C. J. Valemount Hospital and the hospital. About one hundred boys, some of whom had seen service and others who are getting fit to go overseas, accepted the World's invitation to view the pictures. All the wonderful and heart-touching pictures of Canada's sons up in the front line trenches were appreciated to the echo by their cheery, convalescent comrades, and the greatest interest was expressed by all the men present in the operation of the tanks and the great howitzers, which heaved forth their message to "Fritz" with such deadly persistence that the audience sat tense in their seats, spellbound with the reality of the scenes passing before them.

The fifty men from the base were taken to the theatre and back to the hospital in a private car, and on the homeward journey voiced the picture "the greatest they had seen."

SHOULD ENFORCE MILITIA ACT
Veterans of 1866 Believe Days of Voluntary System are Past.

At the regular quarterly meeting of last night, they put themselves on record as being in favor of having the Militia Act put into force immediately. The days of the voluntary system, in their opinion are past and in preparation for eventualities, other methods for recruiting should be adopted. It was decided to hold a meeting at the Regent Theatre, Queen's Park, on May 24, as usual, and also on Dominion day, a huge program will be carried out by the veterans.
