'MOVIE" COMPLAINT TAKEN TO OTTAWA

Deputation of Canadian Exand burdensome, a deputation representing the moving picture exhibitors of Canada held a conference with Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, yesterday.

The chief request of the delegation was for the repeal of the 15 cents per day tax on each reel of motion pictures, which it was claimed had become a burden on the industry and especially on the small exhibitor in the country town. Film censorship was pecially on the small exhibitor in the country town. Film censorship was also discussed. The film censorship in Ontario and Quebec was referred to as being unsatisfactory, and Sir Henry Drayton, while pointing out that censorship was entirely a provincial matter, thought that some step should be taken for an interchange system of censorship whereby acceptance of a picture in one province would mean its acceptance in other provinces.

Mr. T. Scott, Toronto, said there were 875 moving picture theatres in Canada, and these represented an investment of $125,000.000, in which upwards of 20,000 persons were employed with wages averaging $25 a week, or $20,800,000 a year. Mr. Scott claimed that this important industry week, or $20,800,000 a year. Mr. Scott claimed that this important industry was taxed in every manner possible, and the reel tax alone, which is the smallest levy on the list, amounted to $350,000 a year. Mr. Scott said that taxation on the "working man's luxuries" was tending to cause dissatis-LAWYER GUILTY OF

BREACH OF O.T.A

Peterboro, Nov. 22.—In the police court on Saturday J. Guise Bagley, a local lawyer, was fined $500 on a charge of having liquor in his possession contrary to the inland revenue act. On two other charges, one of operating a still and the other of keeping liquor for sale, the accused was committed for trial. Mr. F. D. Kerr conducted the defence and Crown Attorney Hatton represented the crown. Bagley pleaded guilty to the above charges. The prosecution sprung a surprise when it presented a new charge, accusing the prisoner of having performed a criminal opera-tion on Mrs. Jennie Smith McDonald. The prisoner did not plead and was remanded.

"SPARE THE ROD," WAS MAGISTRATE'S FINDING

Hamilton, Nov. 22.—That a school teacher should not use corporal punishment on a pupil for not learning his lessons or for anything but insubordination, was declared by Police Magistrate Jelfs this morning in police court in reproving Maxwell Walker, a teacher at Bullocks Coran assault case against Percy Stoll who, it was alleged, assaulted Walker following the latter's chastisement of his young son. The magistrate imposed a nominal fine of $1 on Stoll.

Now Open For Business

A Cordial Invitation Extended to Everybody to Inspect It.

ROM a small store on Queen Street West twenty-five years ago to an entirely new five storey building occupying 23,000 square feet of floor space, at 384-386 Yonge Street, tells of the steady, healthy growth of Wm. Long's Fair Price, No Interest Piano business in the city of Toronto.

When Wm. Long many years ago determined to sell pianos on easy terms and not charge interest, he was told by other piano dealers that he would fail in business. The thousands of customers in Toronto and the remarkable growth of the Long No Interest Piano and Gramophone business have proven that Mr. Long's idea was sound, practical and worthy of patronage.
