SEARS' NEW AND COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE BIBLE.

From the Southern Quarterly Review for October.

We hail the appearance of this work as an auspicious event in the history of Biblical Literature. It is an excellent work,—excellent in style, rich in material, elegant in exterior and not only correct, but exceedingly fascinating in its contents. We have read it—almost every one must read it—with a deep and kindling interest, equal to that inspired by high-wrought works of fiction. It is not intended solely for scholars—a select few—but for whole masses. It addresses itself to the great heart of humanity; and its touching records of past events,—events of the deepest importance,—find a thrilling response in the breasts of all classes of men, high and low, rich and poor, learned and illiterate, young and old. The most fastidious taste of the most captious critic, can find nothing in its pages at which to cavil. We have been surprised to find, in so voluminous a work, such uniform purity, beauty, simplicity, and almost perfection of style, running throughout the whole, and imparting grace and attraction to every narrative. The highest recommendation of this noble work, however, remains to be mentioned,—its moral attractions,—its power to engage the affections of the heart, which are made to cling to the book as to a dear friend. The feelings with which we take it up, are a mixture of love and reverence. If men are not made pious by reading a work of such pure and elevated tendency, they are taught at least to respect Religion and Virtue, as illustrated in the lives of the Patriarchs, the Prophets, the Apostles, and the Divine Founder of the Christian Faith. They may see and feel the invariable and salutary consequences which flow from obedience to the Divine Laws, as exemplified in the history of individuals and Nations, through the lapse of many centuries. We are satisfied that the perusal and study of this attractive and well-planned work, will do more to confirm the doubtful and wavering in the truth of Divine Revelation, than all the learned defences of it by Christian writers in their controversies with Infidels since the introduction of Christianity. Its pictorial illustrations throw additional light upon the Scripture histories, impart peculiar interest to the work in many respects, and are neat and beautiful specimens of the art of American engraving. The cheapness of the work, (it being furnished at the low price of $5,) connected with its intrinsic value, recommends it to persons in moderate circumstances; and the splendor of its exterior, and its numerous embellishments, render it a suitable ornament for the centre-tables of the wealthy. It is of more real value, even in a literary point of view, than many whole Libraries, and a beautiful and exceedingly interesting work.

RICH, AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE BOOK.

"He who blends instruction with delight,
Profit with pleasure, carries all the votes."

Just published, with a highly finished Portrait of its distinguished Editor, Engraved on steel, by Dick.

SEARS' GUIDE TO KNOWLEDGE.

A splendidly illustrated work, comprising the finest series of embellishments ever given in the American Periodical, elegantly bound. Price only $2, and 500 pages. Each Volume comprises within itself a Condensed in form, familiar in style, and copious in information, embracing an extensive range of subjects in Literature, Science and Art.

III.

SEARS' BIBLE BIOGRAPHY.

From the New-York Pengilleopsic Telegraph.

Among the multitude of Books, as various in their character, as in their external appearance, which constantly issue from the press, it is pleasant to point to one of real value, and know that we are calling public attention to a work not only unexceptionable in its letter and spirit, but salutary in its tendency and influence. Such is the book to which we would now direct the attention of our readers, and especially Christian parents and guardians who are solicitous for the moral welfare of their children and wards. This work contains a series of biographical sketches of the most distinguished men mentioned in the Scriptures, from Adam to John the Baptist, with a sketch of the main life of the Redeemer, and dissertations on the fulfilled prophecies, and other matters highly interesting to the Christian; the whole illustrated by about five hundred Engravings, many of them beautifully executed. It is handsomely bound in cloth and gilt, and sold at the low price of $2 50.

IV.

SEARS' WONDERS OF THE WORD, In Nature, Art and Mind.

This is decidedly one of the most beautiful and interesting Volumes, for YOUNG PEOPLE especially, ever issued from the American Press. We should like to give our readers a few extracts from it with one or two of its numerous pictorial embellishments with which it is adorned, but we found we could not without doing great injustice to the whole work. We will therefore recommend all who are in want of a work of prominent interest and value—one that will live and prove a gem in the family circle, that the ephemeral trash of the day has passed away all to forgotten—to purchase these "Wonders." One of the conductors of this work, in a late New-York Paper, appropriately remarks:—"The Annals boasted of their SEVEN WONDERS, but Mr. Sears new and invaluable work will prove, that we Moderns, can boast of our THOUSAND WONDERS.—Philadelphia paper.

☞ Each of the above works is beautifully printed and illustrated and put up in richly ornamented bindings, higly adapting them as splendid presents for young people.
