FINE SCHOOL RECORD
Miss Marie Kelly, daughter of Michael Kelly, of 28 St. Patrick street, has attended centennial school for three full, consecutive terms, without being once absent or late. The little miss is twelve years old. Her record is a natural source of pride to the family, as well as an example to other pupils in the schools.

COLDBROOK CHURCH
On Saturday evening, June 30, a meeting of those interested in the welfare of St. Bartholomew's church, Coldbrook, was held in the new church building. Rev. B. J. McKinn, rector of St. Mary's, presided and briefly outlined the objects of the gathering. David Hipwell, representing St. Mary's, spoke regarding the present and the future welfare of the new church and offering the hearty cooperation of St. Mary's. The meeting present decided to meet at the home of Mrs. F. Ledford, Glen Falls, for the purpose of organizing a ladies' society for church work. A board of three trustees was elected to meet in conjunction with three from St. Mary's vestry. Services are being held in St. Bartholomew's every Sunday at 7 p.m., with Sunday school at 4 p.m.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.
Rev. A. P. Allen celebrated his first high mass in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday at 11:15 o'clock. Rev. Miles P. Howland acted as deacon and Rev. Francis Walker was sub-deacon. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc was present in the sanctuary as were the other priests of the Diocese. Rev. William M. Duke, prior to the sermon, took occasion to felicitate the young priest on behalf of the bishop and the priests of the St. John Diocese. He referred to the great privilege of his exalted position and to his celebrating mass in the very church wherein his father and mother had been wedded and where he himself had served as an altar boy for many years. Father's extended wishes for a long, happy and fruitful life for the newly ordained priest.

ST. DAVID'S CHURCH CAMP
"Camp Galahad" has become a fixture in the programme of St. David's church and is this year encamped on Holder's Point on the St. John river. About twenty-five boys are present under the leadership of A. R. Crookshank as director, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan as chaplain and P. J. Punter as chef. The tent leaders are Ken Cairns, Ken Willet, Charles Burpee and Howard Jamieson who in turn are assisted by other capable boys. A good outfit has been secured and a good time expected. Baseball will figure largely in the day's programme while instruction will be given in woodcraft, swimming, boating, lifesaving and Bible study. Mr. MacKeigan will return for Sunday and his place will be taken by K. B. Baid, a medical student destined for the Chinese mission field. The camp is promoted by a strong committee of St. David's Brotherhood.

MACKIN-QUINLAN.
An interesting event was solemnized in the church at Black River on Wednesday, June 27, at ten o'clock, when Rev. William Harrigan, with nuptial mass, united in marriage Miss Mary Luella Quinlan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Quinlan, of Willow Grove, and Daniel Mackin of this city. The bride was given away by her father and was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of navy serge, with hat trimmed with portrait satin of pink gorgette, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Quinlan, who was neatly gowned in blue taffeta with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, Edward Mackin. The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring; to the groomsmen a scarf pin and to the bride a substantial check. Following the ceremony the bridal party, which consisted of intimate friends and relatives, went by auto to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty luncheon was served. The many valuable presents received included cut glass, silver, china and linen, and testified to the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

DIVORCE CASE MISUNDERSTANDING

Mrs. Gertrude Burke, as stated in Saturday's evening papers, is not suing her husband, T. Leonard Burke, for divorce. She says she knows of no such person as the woman named as co-respondent, and further that she has no grounds for divorce, no papers having been served on Mr. Burke.

THE EXODUS TO RIVER RESORTS

The Ocean could not carry all who wanted to go up river on Saturday afternoon. The captain had to close the gangway and refuse to take any more. About seventy-five were turned back, and these were accommodated by the May Queen, which made a special trip for them. "If it was necessary to carry them all to get them away from the Germans, we could do it," said Capt. Taylor, "but the law sets a limit and we must obey it." "And if you took them all, and something happened, you'd get no thanks," said a passenger. Of course this passenger was on board, and not clamoring to get there. But he was right. They say there were more automobiles at Brown's Flats on Sunday than ever before. Whether any of the occupants came under the guns of the Germans is not known. A farmer at Public Landing said yesterday that he could not begin to supply the demand upon him for milk, butter, eggs, potatoes and vegetables from now till September.

Some potatoes are in blossom on river farms, but only a small proportion, although the crops are coming along well. The grass thickening up at a remarkable rate and pastures are excellent. Wild strawberries are ripening, and some were picked yesterday at the Landing. Anemones, lilacs, blue flags, daisies, buttercups and other wild flowers make handsome bouquets for the cottagers' tables. It is said that nearly fifty city families and week-end parties are served at Public Landing wharf, scattering up and down the shore. Yesterday was fine, after a little rain in the forenoon, and the river presented a very animated picture. There were large excursions, numerous motor boats, a number of sailing yachts, and all along shore were small boats, or outing parties enjoying the day. The Ocean made an early trip this morning and brought a large number of people back to town in good time for work. The river is falling rapidly and the beaches are beginning to show. The shores are lined with driftwood at high water mark.

The cottagers who have the opportunity are doing more gardening than ever before, and many of them know a potato bug from a freckle.

VETERANS' LETTER TO WIDOWS OF GALLANT CANADIAN SOLDIERS

Pensions and Patriotic Fund Allowances—Effort For Pension Increase—A Lady Visitor

The Times has been asked to publish the following matter of interest: To the Widows of Canadian Soldiers Killed in Action or Died on Service. From the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada (St. John Branch). Dear Sisters:—We call you this, having had the honor of fighting side by side with you in love ones as our brothers in arms. And we wish to extend to you our deepest sympathy in your irreparable loss. But sympathy is cheap consolation, unless otherwise provided for. We wish, therefore, to bring to your notice that in cases where you are not receiving your proper allowance of pay, etc., to note the following: If your pension is not adjusted properly, call on Major Markham at Room 48, Canadian Life building, Prince Wm. street. He is the district pension officer and a member of our association, and will give you an interview any time and give any information you may require. Also we wish to point out to you that you should also draw your patriotic allowance until your pension is adjusted, and we are going to try to get the allowance carried on for you, as we feel a widow requires the allowance as much as ever she did. We are also fighting for you and have already been promised amendments to the pension scheme. We have asked for $12 instead of $6 for your children; orphan children, $20 instead of $12; and a father or mother depending on you to be treated as a wife as to allowances. If in need of special advice, send to the secretary of the War Veterans' Association. We have a lady visitor of our own, who will be pleased to call on you in case of sickness or temporary assistance required. She is for the boys' and your welfare. Treat her as a confidential friend. Yours truly, THE G.W.V.A. E. J. Puddy, secretary.

GOING TO ENGLAND

Four Rothersey and Five St. John Young Ladies—Mrs. Kuhring in Charge

Several St. John and Rothersey young ladies are going to England to work in hospitals. The St. John Ambulance Brigade of Canada some time ago was asked for volunteers to go forward as probationer nurses, or assistants to trained nurses, in military and naval hospitals. There was a prompt response from all over Canada, and word has now come that from Rothersey: Misses J. L. Daniel, Dorothy Purdy, Annie and Dorothy McKen. From St. John: Misses Edith Schofield, E. Coughlan, M. Flagler, E. A. Adams and Alice Wilson. Mrs. G. A. Kuhring has been asked to accompany them to England as officer in charge. The party will be some time this month. All these young ladies are among the youngest members of the V.A.D., and have been tested in the work of the military and convalescent hospitals here. It is worthy of note that there is no salary attached to this work. It is purely a patriotic endeavor on the part of the young ladies; for while their actual expenses will be paid, any personal expenses must be paid by themselves. They therefore deserve the very highest credit for their fine patriotic spirit.

Dear Mary:—
Do you ever go into a house where they do not have any rocking chairs? I think they are the very soul of a home. It's missing comfort not to have them. How one can rock and rock, and forget one's cares!
I do believe that the way a home is furnished affects the dispositions of the whole family. I've always noticed that cheerful people had cheerfully furnished homes. I'm going to always keep my home cheerful looking.
