

NEW BRUNSWICK'S GREATEST SHOE HOUSE
MEN'S $5 AND $6 FALL BOOTS

The majority of the shoe manufacturers have withdrawn all prices, and many of them will not accept an order for either immediate or future delivery. The leather to make shoes out of cannot be obtained. Immense warehouses that formerly at this time of year would be brimful of all kinds of leather are empty. We were more fortunate than many dealers in getting delivery of our Fall Shoes, and as we had contracted for them months ago, are able to offer our customers Fall Boots today at less prices than makers are quoting for same. We do honestly believe that before long there will be no such thing as a fine boot at either $5.00 or $6.00.

Women Have Plan to Reduce Prices and Fight the Millers

Canvass is Taken in Toronto—Many Housewives Start to Bake it Themselves—Means a Great Saving

The Canadian Housewives' Economic Association plans to combat the 18-cent bread by importing flour in carload lots, and selling to their members for home baking. A canvass of members is now being made to secure names of those who will take a portion of the flour at wholesale rates.

"The women of Toronto must take an active part if bakers are to be forced in reducing the high price of bread," said Mrs. A. E. Huestis, president of the Local Council of Women. "If a combine is formed by housewives of the city flour can be bought at a much lower price, and by every woman adopting the plan of baking bread in the home the solution of the problem is reached."

That this scheme has succeeded in other cities is evidenced by Mrs. L. J. Deachman, president of the Consumers' League, Calgary. Here the women banded together with a determination to break down high prices. Efforts were made to secure flour and fish, which were selling at abnormal prices, at a reduced rate by buying in larger quantities. The women joined together. Each one subscribed for a certain amount. Car loads were brought in from the outside and the women were thus enabled to purchase these articles at much lower prices. "The women of Toronto must do the same if they wish to solve the present difficulty," continued Mrs. Deachman. "Let them spend their money wherever they will receive the greatest value for it, even if it means going to the United States. This is the only way to show the millers and bakers they mean business."

President Endorses the Scheme.

Mrs. S. S. Meunier, president of the Housewives' Economic Association, expressed herself as being favorable to the above suggestion. "The league will be glad to lend every assistance we can, and if a certain number of women are willing and ready to adopt the above scheme I can see no reason why flour cannot be bought in this way."

"Home-made bread is not only more gratifying but healthier," said Mrs. W. S. Kirkland, vice-president of the league. "I have made bread for a number of years and find it most satisfactory. At the present price of flour there is not such a decided saving in the price of a loaf, but when it is considered that the home-baked bread is so much more satisfying and less biscuits and cakes are eaten it is well worth a woman's time to bake it in the home."

Many Women Bake Own Bread.

"There are a great number of women baking bread throughout the city," volunteered Mrs. F. W. Edgers, who has been baking for a great number of years. "It is a decided saving in every way, besides being more nourishing. Even as the price people are paying for flour now there is a saving of a few cents a loaf and there is less waste, as the home-made bread keeps moist so much longer."

"Bread can be baked at half the price the bakers are asking," said Mrs. D. McGill, who has been baking several loaves a week at 15 and 20 cents a two-pound loaf. This is for the fancy bread. "If Beaudry, secretary and treasurer, respectively, of the dominion board, addressed the members regarding the matter of organization. A plan was suggested, and finally approved, by the local association, whereby all organization work and certain other branches connected with the local body, will fall under the control of the dominion board. A. O. Skinner, president, and there was a large number of members present. The high cost of food, generally, also fell under discussion, and it was decided to make an effort to get at the bottom of the matter and where the responsibility rested for the exorbitant increases in practically all materials.

We Are Introducing DUOFOLD The Ideal Health Underwear

Here's what it is:—It consists of two thin layers of fabric, soft cotton inside, next the skin, and warm wool outside, that keeps cold out and natural warmth in. Together they are lighter in weight than the usual heavy underwear.

DUOFOLD does not "itch" like all wool. It never feels "clammy" like all cotton. The wool is all on the outside. It absorbs bodily moisture from the cotton, and keeps the garment fresh, soft and dry. The air space between the two inter-knit layers provides ventilation.

Rev. Captain E. B. Hooper Tells of Local Soldiers and Officers Whom He is Meeting

In a letter from Rev. Captain E. B. Hooper, who is still located at Granville Canadian Special Hospital, Ramsgate, Kent, England, he tells of some of the St. John men he is meeting, as follows:

At the present time we have in the Granville: Kilmer, Munro, Newton, Bishop and others whose names I do not at the moment recall, besides Captain George Keefe and Lieutenant Jenkins. A find lot of fellows they are. The experiences they have passed through have affected them for good, and physically they are all making most satisfactory progress.

Captain Keefe is well known in St. John. I cannot say what the future has in store for him, but if he gets what he has earned he will undoubtedly receive his majority before he is many weeks older. He has proved himself a gallant soldier and a very efficient officer. Sergeant Signaller Jenkins, as he was when I last saw him, has received his commission, and never was a commission more worthily bestowed. If Lieutenant Jenkins is able to return to active duty I am confident that it will not be long before he gains his next step. These two men have earned what they have received or may receive by splendid service rendered on the field of battle.

On Monday last I was obliged to go over to Folkestone on special duty. This duty took me to the orderly room tent of the 40th Reserve Battalion at Caesar's Camp. To my utter astonishment and great delight I found there, acting as adjutant, Captain "Sandy" McMillan, one whom I would unhesitatingly describe as one of the best loved and respected officers in the 26th Battalion. We had a pleasant fifteen minutes and we parted hoping to spend a week-end together in the very near future. McMillan looked well, and was in excellent spirits, and yet I trust and have some grounds for hoping that he will not be returning to the front, at least not for some time to come. A man carrying, as he does, a piece of shrapnel in his back, deserves relief from heavy marching, and from service in the trenches or on the field.

Canada Must Do Better.

Regarding Canada's contribution in men to the empire's need, I read the other day that the total of 350,000 had been reached. It is a grand contribution indeed, but in my opinion, not grand enough. SURELY CANADA WILL NOT BE CONTENT UNTIL 600,000 MEN
