"BUD" TIPPET
CROSSED ON THE CORSICAN

Wounded Fairville Soldier Sends Word of Arrival in Canada—Home Soon
From Bud Tippet to his people in Fairville this morning came word that he arrived in Quebec on the Corsican on Sunday and expected to be home after seeing the military authorities. He did not know just when he could get away, but promised to write.
Fairville people have followed Private Tippet's career with a great deal of interest as he was well known and very popular in his native town.
He was badly wounded in the arm and leg while in the fighting and injury to his arm prevents him from taking any further part in the great struggle, though in his letters he has frequently referred to his desire to have another opportunity of doing his little bit. He was one of the first Fairville boys to volunteer with the first contingent and was a personal friend of Private Rudolph McKel who was killed in action.

LOCAL NEWS

AT THE BRIDGE.
The last cable of the Suspension bridge on the northern side was cut this morning.
PRESENT FOR SOLDIER.
On behalf of the office staff and foremen of the various departments of T. S. Simms & Company's factory, Ernest H. Luck yesterday afternoon was given a military wrist watch. The presentation was made by R. W. Pugh and, in a fitting way, he described the loss sustained by the staff in the departure of so bright and cheerful a member, who, in the short time he has been with the company in the position of paymaster, has won the esteem of every fellow employee. Mr. Luck will leave this afternoon to join the 2nd battalion at Sussex, followed by the best wishes of many friends.

CARLETON PASTOR RESIGNS

Rev. A. J. Archibald is Going to New Glasgow Church
Rev. A. J. Archibald, who has for the last five years been pastor of Charlotte Street Baptist Church, West Side, has tendered his resignation and will leave about October 15 to take up a new charge, the First Baptist Church, New Glasgow, N. S.
Following his ordination, Rev. Mr. Archibald took charge of a church in Gloucester Bay, where he remained for a short time. Then he went to Digby, where he was for seven years. He was then called to the church in Carleton and has administered carefully and faithfully to the welfare of his flock at St. John. He is highly esteemed, not only by those under his spiritual care, but by the citizenship in general, and it is regretted to leave the city will be learned with regret. Wishes of continued success will follow him.
Mr. Archibald gave notice of his resignation two weeks ago, and it was considered last Sunday. His congregation lamented his action and sought to prevail upon him to stay. It is not known yet who his successor will be.

BICYCLE RACE ON MARSH ROAD ON OCTOBER 11

Sport fans will be pleased to hear that definite arrangements have been made for the holding of the annual Dunlop Trophy bicycle race. The event, which is a twenty mile one, will, as usual, be raced on the Marsh road. It will take place on Monday, October 11, Thanksgiving Day, under the auspices of the St. John Lodge Loyal Order of Moose. Already several former contestants have signalled their intention of competing and these, together with several younger riders, anxious to compete in a major event, will have as many if not more contestants than in former years. A. W. Covey, the secretary of the Moose, will be glad to receive entries from those wishing to compete.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

Shannon-Marley
At six o'clock this morning, in St. Rose's church, Rev. Charles Collins united in marriage Frank R. Shannon, of Millford and Kathleen E. daughter of James Marley of Pleasant Point. Many friends were in attendance. Miss Alice McManus was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Charles Marley, brother of the bride. The latter wore a traveling suit of blue, and black hat with ostrich trimming, and carried a handsome bouquet. The bridesmaid also wore blue with hat to match. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. M. Belding, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon left by the steamer for Boston on their wedding tour. The bride received many valuable gifts, and the friends of bride and groom extend congratulations and good wishes.
Bates-Bell
The wedding of Alvin Parker Bates of the St. John Railway Co. staff to Miss Alice M. Bell, daughter of Mrs. John Bell, Metcalfe street, was solemnized by Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson in Main street Baptist church at six o'clock this morning. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and friends of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bates left for Fredericton and other provincial places for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside in St. John.
Downing-Callahan
Anselm Downing of St. John and Miss Kathleen Callahan, also of this city, were married at Bonaventure, province of Quebec, on last Monday by Rev. Father Matt. Mr. and Mrs. Downing are now enjoying a honeymoon tour which includes the Matapedia, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa and other cities. They will spend a few weeks at Gaspé Basin and will reach St. John in November. They will reside in this city.

The Man In The Street

This morning's greeting: "Chilly, eh?"
Yes, it was quite commonplace, but then remarks about the weather are seldom original.
The most original sayings these days pertain to the street railway service, but when originality verges on profanity, it loses its charm from a newspaper standpoint.
The price of bread has gone down in London, Ont. Perhaps with a bread inspector on the job here, we may hope that the movement will spread farther eastward.
The Potts' Memorial.
"I have paid for some things of a permanent nature"—Commissioner Potts at yesterday's council meeting. The fervent prayer of Indian town folks is that he's not referring to that concrete over the rails.
Shakespeare might just as truly have had in mind a street car as a rose when he asked "What's in a name?" so far as the signs on top are concerned.
Even the two cars on the Indian town semi-weekly spur carry the same signs these on the main line, no one is being fooled except strangers in our midst.
Cheaper to Sell Liquor.
Commissioner McLellan wants a $600 license for private detective agencies in the city. This may be one way of showing the spirit of friendliness existing between the police department and an ex-official thereof.
Another way is to have him thrust off a seat in the police car, as was done a short time ago.
And then just $200 more will pay the salary of the bread inspector.
Nearly time to think of fall overcoats again. Has fall arrived to stay or is this merely a ruse?
Commissioner Potts seems to think that the leak of news at city hall in the same class with the once-famous leak of 1864.
Two thousand citizens protested against the garage law. What has that to do with the city charter?
Canada's war planners earned their keep this year; with scientific management the government might be able to defeat a dividend next year.
We might use some of them in the streets of St. John if the public works appropriation is augmented.
Liquor dealers in Hamilton, Ont., offer voluntarily to refuse to serve soldiers. Isn't that a strong argument to help a recruiting campaign?
Why single out soldiers?
The allies have arranged for their loss of $700,000,000 in New York. If there is any money left in that burg some St. John people would like to organize a recruiting campaign by their lack.
Bulgaria seems to have the bulge on both sides in this war.
If a present of an alarm clock for each soldier who does not own one would obviate the need for those early morning whistles, will some kind citizen please take up a collection?

SAYS SUBMARINE LAY IN WAIT FOR CORSICAN

Steamship on Which M. E. Agar Returned Home—Statement by Toronto Officer
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 22.—"There is absolutely no doubt that a hostile submarine lay in wait for the Corsican," said Sgt. Instructor Taylor of Toronto, one of the Canadian soldiers who returned on that steamer.
"When we were steaming along the south coast of Ireland near the gate of the Lusitania and of the Hesperian, we were informed by wireless that a German submarine was waiting for us sixty-four miles east of Fastnet. I am positive that we owe our lives to the discretion of Captain Hamilton, the good skipper of the Corsican."
Immediately upon receipt of the news the navigating officer started the ship on a zig-zag course, which we pursued for thirty-six hours, until we were out of the danger zone. The opinion of the officers of the liner was that the Hun submarine commander figured we would take a southerly course. If so, he was well fooled, for we followed the track of the ill-fated Hesperian."
M. E. Agar of St. John and Major Percy Guthrie of Fredericton were passengers on the Corsican.
RETURNED AFTER FUNERAL
Leonard and Ira Phillips, their sister Miss Agnes Phillips and W. H. Parker of this city have returned home from Salisbury where they motored on Saturday to attend the funeral of their cousin Donald Harrington, shot by mistake for a deer last week. The funeral was attended by many friends, much sympathy being aroused for the bereaved family.

Out of Ammunition

Lack of ammunition has made important developments in the world's war.
It has turned the tide of battles at critical moments.
No manufacturer seeking to market goods at a fair profit has advertising ammunition to waste.
It pays him best when he makes all his ads hit through newspaper advertising.
Then and then only his money works without waste.
Manufacturers are invited to send to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York, for the booklet "The Newspapers."
